KIDS COMICS!

Whether you're young or old, regardless of your tastes and interests, there's no denying the appeal of a well-written, well-drawn comic book or graphic novel. "All-Ages" doesn't have to strictly mean "For Kids Only"... especially when there's so much wonderful content being created today that's perfectly suited for anyone to pick up and enjoy. This month PREVIEWS celebrates Kids Comics throughout the issue with plenty of new and backlist titles available. We've called out a few top titles here on this spread, but there are plenty more to be found throughout our Comics and Books sections — just look for the KIDS COMIC icon!

Bobby Curnow and Sarah Gaydos work behind the scenes at IDW Publishing to make sure their all-ages offerings come together without a hitch. As the editors of TMNT, My Little Pony, Walt Disney Comics and Stories, Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, and many more, Bobby and Sarah are in charge of some of the most fun kids comics on the shelves today. To coincide with our Kids Comics theme, PREVIEWS recently spoke with them about the work they do as editors for IDW's diverse and popular all-ages titles.

"HEY KIDS, COMICS!"

For many older collectors who got their start buying comics from the local newsstand or drugstore, that phrase — "Hey Kids, Comics!" — meant something to all of us.

It was a call to young readers to come over and take a look at what the spinner rack had to offer, and it was also a promise that if you came back the next week, magically, as if left by some kind of printer elves, there'd be new titles available. I used to love going to the local Rexall drug store for my new comics... such a neat place. But they soon got rid of the comics (as well as all of the other stuff that made it so much fun for me and my friends to visit—monster models, toys, baseball cards, an extensive candy counter), and for a while, I had nowhere to go to find my comics.

This soon changed, as I found a liquor store with a big newsstand inside and comics galore. Then about a year later, the first comics shops in the area began to emerge, and my days of hunting for comics were over. So now readers and collectors, young and old alike, can find whatever they want at their local comics shop. And with events like Free Comic Book Day and Halloween Comic Fest, kids can get their introductions to our favorite hobby and try out all sorts of new titles, for free!

This month we once again celebrate Kids Comics month with a great selection of new and backlist titles that will appeal to readers of all ages! We've also got interviews with IDW all-ages editors Bobby Curnow and Sarah Gaydos in this issue's FlipSide feature.

Your Pal @ PREVIEWS,

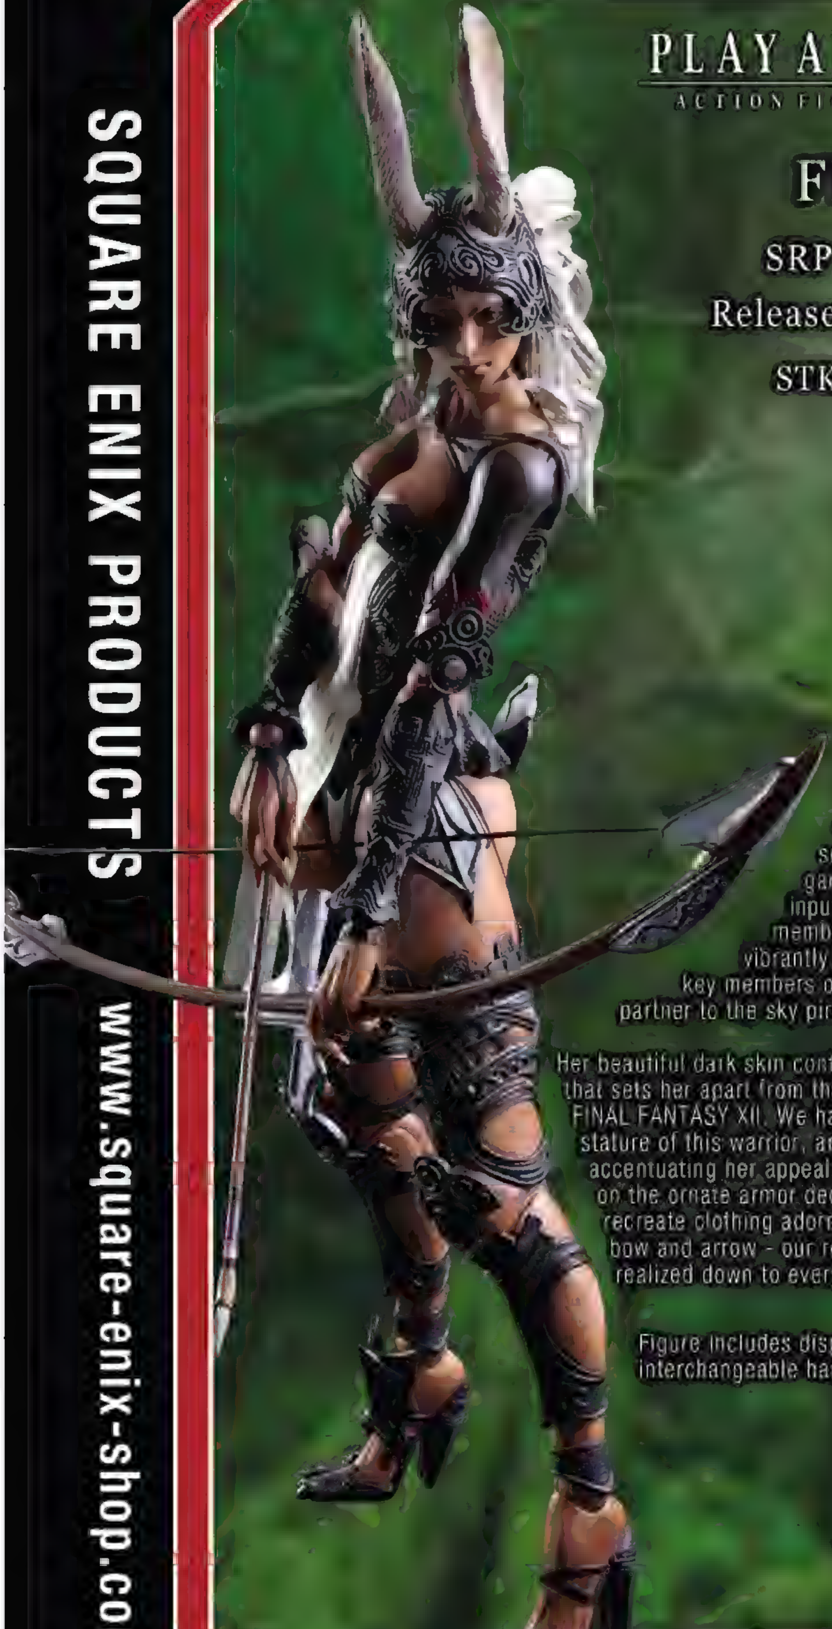
FINAL FANTASY XII

PLAY ARTS 改 KAI
ACTION FIGURE

FRAN

SRP $120.00
Release: April 2016
STK 692111



FINAL FANTASY XII introduced revolutionary features, including seamless 360-degree battles and a gambit system in which the player can input the actions of the supporting party members. The title's popularity lives on vibrantly in the hearts of its fans. One of the key members of the story is Fran, a viera warrior and partner to the sky pirate Balthier.

Her beautiful dark skin contrasts with her silvery hair for a visage that sets her apart from the other protagonists of FINAL FANTASY XII. We have recreated the tall and agile stature of this warrior, and no details has been spared in accentuating her appeal: her iconic long ears, the paintwork on the ornate armor decorations, translucent pieces to recreate clothing adorned with delicate lace, her favorite bow and arrow - our respect for this beloved character is realized down to every last detail.

- Welcome to Showside Vol. 1 TP (See listing under "Z2 Comics")
- Bravest Warriors Vol. 6 TP (DEC151125)
- Adventure Time: Candy Capers TP (MAR140997)

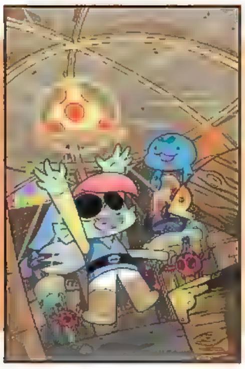
Hello! I am Ian McGinty! I'm an American artist, writer and designer based in Savannah, Georgia, and I created, draw and write Z2 Comics' new series, Welcome to Showside, as well as directing the dang thing and voicing the main character of the animated series of the same name by Modern Prometheus. I was the lead artist with Kate Leth on Bravest Warriors, and my first big break was an Adventure Time mini-series called Candy Capers, followed by Uglydoll and Hello Kitty. I enjoy sashimi cut into weird chunks and turn-based RPG video games featuring silent protagonists that are total jerks to everyone else for no reason.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

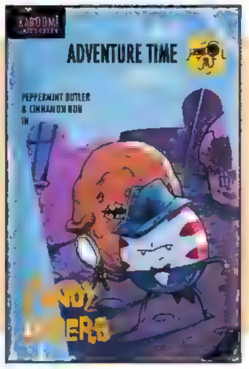
Definitely my run on Bravest Warriors, to start. We, meaning Kate Leth and I, were able to take the amazing stuff Mike Holmes and various writers did with the "teens in space kicking butt" thing and sort of morph that to focus more on the relationships of various characters, issue of roles regarding gender/status, and we straight up gave Plum a really cool new girlfriend, Peach. Also, Catbug is cuter than ever. I have recently been looking back at the Adventure Time mini-series I did, Candy Capers, with some fondness. The art is not as horrific as I initially thought! I also enjoyed working on Uglydoll and Hello Kitty with Viz Media, and I'd say my work on the Munchkin game series, by Steve Jackson Games, has been really fun because it's something different and I always love having new outlets to meet new fans. I'm terrible at the actual game, please do not ask me advice on playing it.

What are you currently working on?

A lot! A lot more than I probably should be. I've been working extremely hard on my very first creator-owned series, Welcome to Showside, which includes working extremely hard on my very first animated short, Welcome to Showside. Issue #2 is out soon and it's really fun (this is the issue where we based a brand new character on a young fan I met in Kansas City who really impressed me with how enthusiastic he was about comics), and I'm already well into issue #3, which gets pretty dark for an all-ages foray. I just completed an entire game deck for Munchkin that will be available next year, for you tabletop types, called Munchkin: Guest Artist Edition. The next big news is still pretty secret, but I will be the new lead artist on a super-mega-popular all-ages series, so I'm currently terrified and hiding under my covers a lot lately!

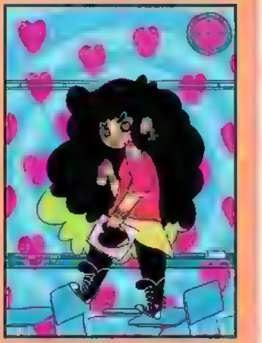


BRAVEST WARRIORS



ADVENTURE TIME
PEPPERMINT BUTLER & CINNAMON BUN IN

What fun titles are you reading?



One title I'm pretty excited about is Boom Studios' Boombox new comic, Jonesy* (Issue #1 / DEC151095). It's coming out pretty soon, around Valentine's Day, and it's about this girl who is pretty normal except she can make anyone she wants fall in love, like a real life cupid! The catch is she can't make anyone fall in love with her using her powers, she has to do it the old fashioned way (not Netflix and chill). This series is written by Sam Humphries, cool, and the art is by my Twitter buddy, Caitlyn Rose Boyle, who has an art style I wish I could steal and suck out of her brain like that part in Hocus Pocus. It's sort of proto-Invader Zim (another title I'm currently loving!), with a cool mixture of Scott Pilgrim, punk rock, and cuteness. I think it'll be fun!

I just finally got around to reading the first volume of Matt Fraction and Chip Zdarsky's, Sex Criminals* (Vol. 1 / JAN140558), but it's on like its fourth or fifth volume by now, sooo there isn't a whole lot more I can add or say about how fantastic this comic is.

Finally, I just read Rumble* (Vol. 1: What Color of Darkness / APR150618), by John Arcudi, James Harren and Dave Steward, and it's amazing. I love monsters, especially monsters that sort of fit into a Hellboy vibe, but I was really drawn to the crazy cool looking beasts featured throughout this story. I'm generally an artist first and a reader second, so the art in here really blew me away. It's not trying to copy any style, yet it just fits. Hard to explain. There's a Rafael Grampá thing going on here in the art that I just love, and the story manages to be really, really funny and pretty dang disturbing at the same time. That's not an easy bar to reach, but this book pulled it off, in my opinion. But yeah, a good one for fans of Hellboy or just monsters and fun. That dog is looking at me again, so I'm gonna end this sentence here, thanks!

WHAT'S@ COMIC SHOPS

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

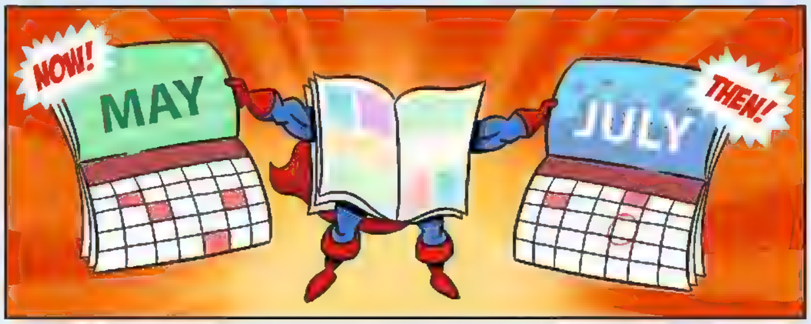
PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.



NOW!
MAY
THEN!

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

February is Black History Month.

We asked some prominent pros about their take on BHM and what it means to them. See more Q&A's online at PREVIEWSworld.com.*

JIMMIE ROBINSON

Writer/Artist and Creator of The Empty, Power Lines, Bomb Queen, and Five Weapons for Image Comics.

What got you interested in comics?

My mother. She knew I liked to draw and she encouraged it. When I was young, I mainly drew what I saw on TV. My mother worked for the railroad and one of the people she worked with also owned a comic book store. She told him about me and he often gave comics to my mother to pass along to me. He used to write notes on Post-its and put them inside the comics. "See how this is inked?" "See how this is colored?" "Notice this character?"

What does Black History Month mean to you?

It's a time to recognize and honor the contributions from people of color in America. Not just African Americans, but all people of color – and yes, including Caucasians. It's a time to reflect on how we can all work together to repair the bridges between race and gender in America.

Who's your favorite black artist/entertainer? Why?

Dwayne McDuffie. I was honored to know and speak with him on several occasions before his death. He was monumental to me as I worked to find a place for myself in the industry. He represented the potential of what diversity means for comics.

Do you feel comics represent a wider diversity now?

Absolutely, I think comics have done well with diversity. Is it perfect? No, but that can be said about a lot of different industries.

JAMAL IGLE

Creator of Molly Danger, VP-Marketing, Action Lab Entertainment

What got you interested in comics?

When I was five years old, my grandfather took me to see the Richard Donner Superman movie and I immediately fell in love with the concept of superheroes and comics as an extension. For me, there is an immediacy of comics that is more visceral than most forms of art, subjectively perhaps. There's a thrill to me of seeing my work in print, of writing and drawing stories that I can share and hopefully touch readers on a deep level.

What does Black History Month mean to you?

Those who forget history are doomed to repeat it. I think that for young people Black History Month is more important than ever.

Who's your favorite black artist/entertainer? Why?

Prince. Just a brilliant all around talent.

Do you feel comics represent a wider diversity now?

There's always more that can be done but there are certainly more platforms to explore the variety of life on this world. We can't represent everything, we shouldn't expect to have total parity because you're talking about one person or team trying to represent a portion of the planets entire population. All we can do as creators is try to tell the best stories we can.

ROYE OKUPE

Publisher, YouNeek Studios Creator E.X.O. - the Legend of Wale Williams GN

What got you interested in comics?

It was my love for superheroes and what they represented that got me into reading comics. But I got interested in producing comics for two reasons. First of which was to finally step out and take a risk to make my dream come true. I've always had a dream to create a superhero from Nigeria, where I was born and raised. The second reason was pride. I wanted to do something positive and inspirational for my country and for Africa.

What does Black History Month mean to you?

It is truly significant. For me it's a time to reflect. To look back and see what others sacrificed to allow me to be able to pursue my dreams without fear. It pushes me to do all I can to inspire the next generation to go after their dreams and aspirations.

Who's your favorite black artist/entertainer? Why?

Wow, that's a tough one, I have so many. But if I had to choose I would have to say Kevin Hart because of his daily grind. Kevin Hart has built an empire using his talent, tenacity and drive as its foundation.

Do you feel comics represent a wider diversity now?

Looking back, comics have definitely come a very, very long way. And I am happy about that. But as with everything in life there is always room for improvement.

DAVID WALKER

Writer for Power Man & Iron Fist & Nighthawk (Marvel), Cyborg (DC), Shaft (DE), and The Army of Dr. Moreau (IDW).

What got you interested in comics?

I grew up watching syndicated episodes of the live-action Batman TV show starring Adam West and Burt Ward, and that started my obsession with comics. My mom bought me my first comic book when I was about three or four years old, it was Batman #247, and I was hooked.

What does Black History Month mean to you?

It is something of a double-edged sword for me, because I don't think Black History should be relegated to the shortest month of the year—it's something that needs to be acknowledged and celebrated all year long. At the same time, I appreciate the fact that there is a time when the importance of the Black experience is placed in some kind of spotlight.

Who's your favorite black artist/entertainer? Why?

That is a long list, but I'll narrow it down for the sake of this interview, and say it is Oscar Micheaux, a pioneering author and filmmaker. Micheaux was one of the first African American filmmakers, at a time when Blacks were not allowed to go to movie theaters in much of this country.

Do you feel comics represent a wider diversity now?

We still have an incredibly long way to go. Diversity means more than just having some Black characters in comics, or having Black creators on books. It means having characters for a wide spectrum of humanity, created by an equally wide spectrum of people of various stripes and persuasions.

Where The Magic Of Collecting Comes Alive!

Sylvester Stallone Fans Knock Out Auction

Art credit: Image courtesy of Heritage Auctions

Fans of international superstar Sylvester Stallone purchased hundreds of his iconic costumes, props, and personal items in Stallone – The Auction at Heritage. Pieces owned by Stallone, from Rocky and Rambo along with other popular films, netted over $3 million in the auction on December 18-20.

"The memorabilia I have has been used and been a part of my life for, kind of hard to admit this, well over 40 years," Stallone said while speaking to the crowd. "It's been in my possession and I've fond memories attached to just about every object. There comes a point, though, when I think that I've used these objects enough and have created enough memories that I can let them go"

The black leather jacket he wore in Rocky soared to $149,000. The canvas poncho Stallone created as John Rambo in First Blood realized $60,000. Among his personal mementos was a pair of 1980 Muhammad Ali training worn gloves inscribed to Stallone, which bidders drove to $47,500. A pair of boxing trunks worn by Stallone in Rocky IV closed at $57,500. Dolph Lundgren's satin jacket with hammer and sickle emblem, boxing shorts, and leather boxing shoes from Rocky IV sold for $45,000.

The Art and Design of Saul Bass

In a career that spanned 40 years, Saul Bass worked with the likes Alfred Hitchcock, Martin Scorsese, Billy Wilder, Otto Preminger, and Stanley Kubrick, among others, creating memorable movie posters and title sequences.

His posters broke away from traditions. Prior to his work most movie posters usually presented images of a key scene of the film or of the poising characters. Instead, Bass designed symbolic pieces depicting key elements and themes of the movie in a minimalistic style.

For The Man with the Golden Arm poster Bass created a crooked arm, symbolism the disjointed life of a heroin addict. For Vertigo the animated figure is sucked into the center of a dizzying vortex, capturing the anxiety and panic portrayed in the film. Another of his well-known posters was for Anatomy of a Murder depicting the animated figure of a body placed in the center, though each appendage is disconnected from the torso mirroring the courtroom drama's dissection of the events leading to the murder. His work on The Shining features a ghostly close-up image of a face that could be emoting sheer terror or sinister intentions, a maddening point made throughout the movie.

What's Cool in this Month's Catalog!

February 2016 | Edited By: Allyn Gibson | editor@*PREVIEWS*world.com

ACCLAIMED AUTHOR TA-NAHESI COATES BEGINS HIS RUN ON BLACK PANTHER

T'Challa, the Black Panther and the hereditary king of the advanced African kingdom of Wakanda, contends with a revolution that could remake his country's social and political fabric in what is certain to be one of the most-talked about comics of the year, Marvel Comics' new Black Panther series from acclaimed author Ta-Nahesi Coates and legendary artist Brian Stelfreeze!

One of the most technologically and culturally advanced nations in Africa, Wakanda has been at peace for centuries thanks to the enlightened and benevolent rule of its monarchy. A terrorist group, calling themselves The People and claiming to speak for Wakanda's masses, launch a series of attacks that spark a revolution among Wakanda's citizenry. With the stability of his kingdom threatened, can T'Challa quell the rebellion, restore peace, and keep his throne? Or does the future of his nation lay in a different direction, one that will remake the very identity of Wakanda?

Ta-Nahesi Coates, correspondent for The Atlantic, author of the best-selling Between the World and Me, and winner of the National Book Award, is known for exploring the intersection of race and culture in American history, and he will bring his keen insights on the African-American experience to Black Panther and investigate them through the prism of T'Challa, his people, and the nation of Wakanda itself. Joined by artist Brian Stelfreeze on art, his first major project on interiors in years, Black Panther will be a challenging and thoughtful read, one that will push the boundaries of what comics can do and should be.

THEY SAID IT:

"T'Challa isn't just a superhero in the physical sense, he is one of the smartest people in the world, ruling the most advanced civilization on the planet."

— Ta-Nahesi Coates

Launching in April, Coates and Stelfreeze's Black Panther will undoubtedly be one of the year's most-discussed and groundbreaking comics. Join the conversation this spring in Black Panther #1!

A CLASSIC TOY LINE RETURNS WITH NEW ADVENTURES IN IDW'S MICRONAUTS

In the late 1970s, Mego Toys released a series of highly articulated action figures, the Micronauts! This action figure line featured a richly developed sci-fi world and spawned a television series and an influential comic book series from Marvel Comics. This spring, IDW Publishing brings back the Micronauts for the 21st-century in their new Micronauts series from Cullen Bunn and David Baldeon!

In a universe where magic and science vie for control, Baron Karza wages a war against the forces of Acroyear, the former king of Spartak, and his allies. But the universe is dying, and their war may be for naught. But can the entry of the Time Travelers turn the tide?

Featuring covers from an all-star line-up of artists, including J.H. Williams III, Gabriel Rodriguez, and Micronauts co-creator Michael Golden, IDW Publishing's Micronauts #1 is a can't-miss event for fans of the toys and animated series!

BRAIN WOOD RETURNS TO SCANDINAVIA IN HIS NEW SERIES, BLACK ROAD

Nearly a decade ago, Brian Wood launched Northlanders, an acclaimed comic that explored the culture and life of the Vikings, from DC Entertainment's Vertigo imprint. In April, Wood returns to the cold lands of northern Europe's long-ago past for a new Image Comic series, Black Road.

In a land that is torn between the ancient pagan religion and the new religion, Christianity, Magnus the Black fits comfortably into neither world. Yet he is a keen warrior and has a keen intellect, earning him both respect and fear from those around him. When a man is murdered, it is Magnus that will ferret out the truth, no matter where he must go, no matter who he must offend, and nothing with stop him.

A mystery in the historical tradition pioneered by Ellis Peters' Brother Cadfael novels and Peter Tremayne's Sister Fidelma novels, Black Road from Wood and artists Garry Brown and Dave McCaig will take readers into the mysterious world of the Vikings!

A NEIL GAIMAN SHORT STORY COMES TO COMICS IN A DARK HORSE GRAPHIC NOVEL

Neil Gaiman, the acclaimed author of The Sandman, American Gods, and Neverwhere, has penned over a hundred short stories in his career. One of those stories, "How to Talk to Girls at Parties," explores the anticipation, excitement, anxiousness, and dismay that teenagers (and, to be fair, adults) often feel in unexpected social settings, especially those filled with strangers, particularly strangers to whom a person may feel the first pinpricks of attraction, strangers who may look human but may as well be aliens.

This spring, Fabio Moon and Gabriel Bá adapt Gaiman's short story for a new graphic novel from Dark Horse Comics. Capturing the rush of emotions that one feels in an awkward social setting, How to Talk to Girls at Parties lovingly and tenderly recreates the gentle lyricism of Gaiman's short story and brings this tale to a new audience!

75 Spirited Years: Will Eisner & The Spirit

Now running through March 7, 2016

Will Eisner's legacy in the world of comics is one of challenging the medium for all it was worth as he pushed the limits of form and function to get the greatest storytelling results possible.

In addition to championing the graphic novel, turning out "how to" instructions for the military, and inspiring multiple generations of creators, 75 years ago this master of the comic art form created The Spirit!

Join us for a retrospective on 75 years of The Spirit and a sampling of Will Eisner's other great works, 75 Spirited Years: Will Eisner & The Spirit at Geppi's Entertainment Museum. Curated by Eisner's longtime friend, colleague and publisher Denis Kitchen, this exhibit showcases more than 50 pieces of original art and more!

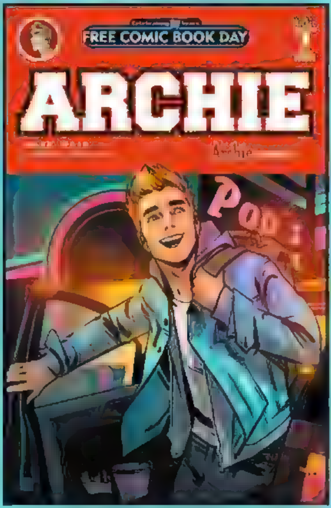
ARCHIE COMICS



ARCHIE #1 FCBD 2016 EDITION

(W) Mark Waid (A/CA) Fiona Staples

Comic superstars Mark Waid and Fiona Staples reimagine an icon in this special FCBD reprint of the best-selling first issue of Archie! Change has come to Riverdale in the can't-miss kick-off to Archie's new ongoing series! As the new school year approaches, you'd think Archie Andrews would be looking forward to classes and fun — but nothing is as it seems in the little town of Riverdale. Is this a one-off, or a sign of bigger changes awaiting America's favorite teens... and the entire town? Find out in this exciting, remarkable and critically acclaimed first issue! (STK697832)

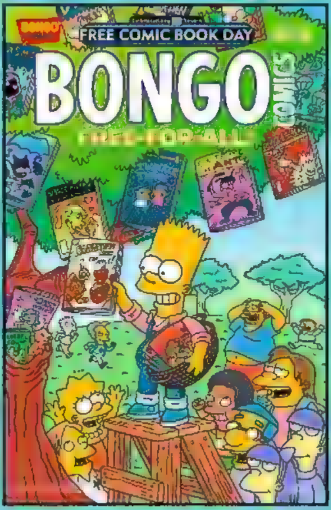
BONGO COMICS



BONGO COMICS FREE-FOR-ALL FCBD 2016 EDITION

(W/A/CA) Matt Groening

Get in line for the foremost Free Comic Book Day four-color giveaway of the year! Pieman and the Cupcake Kid take on a new crime team, Glutenus Maximus and his sidekick Gluten Tag, whose pastry-related misdeeds have led to a ban on all baked goods in Springfield! How will the heroic duo battle their foes without their arsenal of pies and cupcakes, and what's worse...what will Homer do without his daily dose of donuts? Then, after an unfortunate trip to the dentist, Principal Skinner is mistaken for a vampire. It doesn't help that Bart fuels the fire (and supplies the pitchforks) to an unruly mob uprising. All that and much, much more — and it's all free! (STK698612)

Camp Midnight

CAMP MIDNIGHT FCBD 2016 EDITION

(W) Steven T. Seagle
(A/CA) Jason Adam Katzenstein

Add a touch of spooky to your Free Comic Book Day this year with the first chapter of Ben 10 and Big Hero 6 creator Steven T. Seagle and New Yorker Magazine cartoonist Jason Adam Katzenstein's Camp Midnight! Not wanting to please her "step monster," reluctant Skye is dead-set on not fitting in. But when she's accidentally sent to the wrong summer camp — Camp Midnight, where everyone attending is a full-fledged monster — Skye realizes that not fitting in will be the very least of her challenges! Camp Midnight is the perfect book for readers who love Raina Telgemeier's Smile but wish it had more bowls of gooey eyeballs in the lunch scenes. Solving a murder in the deepest part of the ocean brings its own unique challenges.
There's nothing left of it.
Flooded.
I need to see it.
Follow me. You'll have to get there in a pressure suit.
Why are you here?
USEAR sent me. They're convinced one of you is a mole. Sabotaging Dept. H and the entire base.
They're not wrong.
You remember how to work this?
Dad showed me too, Raj.
Just making sure. I know you hate the water.
Raj.
My brother. Too much history to think about right now. I just need to focus on the facts.
It wasn't my fault, Mia.

HOW TO TALK TO GIRLS AT PARTIES HC

Neil Gaiman (W), Fábio Moon (A/Cover), and Gabriel Bá (A/Cover)

On sale June 15	FC, 64 pages
$17.99	HC, 7" x 10"

Two teenage boys are in for a tremendous shock when they crash a party where the girls are far more than they appear!

From Neil Gaiman—one of the most celebrated authors of our time—and award-winning artists Fábio Moon and Gabriel Bá, this sumptuous graphic novel is not to be missed!

- Moon and Bá adapt the Gaiman story they were born to draw!

"Gaiman, Moon, and Bá have created a triolet of a book, lyrically powerful and utterly unforgettable." —Junot Díaz

"How can something so strange and so beautiful also be so sad? Like a poem, a pattern, and a people whose world was swallowed by the sea,* How To Talk To Girls at Parties *is three things at once."
— Kelly Sue DeConnick

"Had sneak peek at* How To Talk To Girls at Parties. *What boys fear! That girls are very smart aliens who will do frightful things to you in The Upper Room! Teenage angst. Lovely drawing/painting."
—From a Tweet by Margaret Atwood

"A haunting ode to the lyric of girls, who for our protagonists represent a vast, uncharted universe. An extraordinary comic from three extraordinary creators." —Marjorie Liu

"Gentle, strange, and full of perfectly good advice ('You just have to talk to them!'),* How To Talk To Girls at Parties *is wise and odd. Neil Gaiman's writing is sweetly complemented by Fábio Moon & Gabriel Bá's art. It's a quirky delight." —Audrey Niffenegger

Dr. Harleen Frances Quinzel, M.D., welcomes you to Evil Anonymous, the support group for super villains in need; where no problem is too insane or homicidal, and where discretion is assured as only a clown princess of crime can—which is to say, not at all. But when Harley Quinn starts using her patients' own evil schemes against them, it turns out that a much bigger, far more dangerous, and truly life-altering joke is being played on her.

DARK NIGHT: A TRUE BATMAN STORY HC

Written by PAUL DINI
Art and cover by EDUARDO RISSO

On sale JUNE 15 • 128 pg, FC, $22.99 US
MATURE READERS

The Caped Crusader has been the all-abiding icon of justice and authority for generations. But in this surprising original graphic novel, we see Batman in a new light—as the savior who helps a discouraged man recover from a brutal attack that left him unable to face the world.

In the 1990s, Eisner Award-winning writer Paul Dini had a flourishing career writing the hugely popular Batman: The Animated Series and Tiny Toon Adventures. Walking home one evening, he was jumped and viciously beaten within an inch of his life. His recovery process was arduous, hampered by the imagined antics of the villains he was writing for television including The Joker, Harley Quinn and the Penguin. But despite how bleak his circumstances were, or perhaps because of it, Dini also always imagined the Batman at his side during his darkest moments.

DARK NIGHT: A TRUE BATMAN STORY is the harrowing and eloquent autobiographical tale of Dini's courageous struggle to overcome a truly desperate situation. It is a Batman story like none other and one that will truly resonate with fans. Art by the incredibly talented Eduardo Risso (100 BULLETS, DARK KNIGHT III: THE MASTER RACE).

STATUES

It feels good to be bad…Assemble a team of the world's most dangerous, incarcerated Super Villains, provide them with the most powerful arsenal at the government's disposal, and send them off on a mission to defeat an enigmatic, insuperable entity. U.S. intelligence officer Amanda Waller has determined only a secretly convened group of disparate, despicable individuals with next to nothing to lose will do. However, once they realize they weren't picked to succeed but chosen for their patent culpability when they inevitably fail, will the Suicide Squad resolve to die trying, or decide it's every man for himself?

cover Carlos Valenzuela

For years, FBI agents Fox Mulder and Dana Scully toiled in the X-Files unit, a one-office division of the Bureau dealing with cases deemed unsolvable and related to unexplained phenomena. During their investigations, Mulder, the "believer," and Scully, the "skeptic," delved into the occult, religion, urban legends, conspiracy theories, UFOs, alien abductions, and genetic engineering. Eventually, both agents left the FBI and began a new life together in peaceful anonymity, which endured until now. Collects the first 15 issues of the Season 10 series.

RUSS HEATH'S YELLOW HEAT: ARTIST'S EDITION PORTFOLIO

writer Bruce Jones

artist/cover Russ Heath

Russ Heath is one of the finest artists in comic book history. In a career that began more than 70 years ago, he has worked for nearly every publisher. This Artist's Edition Portfolio prints one of Heath's most beautiful and notorious stories, "Yellow Heat"! Originally published in Vampirella #58 in 1977, "Yellow Heat" has been called Heath's greatest work. It is reproduced here, meticulously scanned from the original art, and collected in a hardcover portfolio case.

ROBERT RUARK WOULD HAVE TOLD YOU SO IN 1964. ERNEST HEMINGWAY KNEW IT IN 1944. EVEN AS EARLY AS 1914 TEDDY ROOSEVELT COULD HAVE PREDICTED IT. AFRICA IS DYING. FOR SOME, IT IS ALREADY DEAD.
THE LUSH SAVANNAS THAT STRETCHED ENDLESSLY BELOW THE GLORY OF MT. KILIMANJARO--TEEMING WITH IMPALA, TOPI AND WATERBUCK--ARE REDUCED NOW, TO SCORCHED AND BARREN DUST BOWLS, THANKS TO THE TIRELESS HEARDS OF MASAI CATTLE RAVISHING ALL THAT IS GREEN BEFORE THEM ON THEIR CONSTANT SEARCH FOR FOOD.
EVEN THE FEW GAME RETREATS THAT REMAIN, LIKE THE AMBOSELI RESERVE ARE UNDER HEAVY THREAT FROM FRUSTRATED HERDSMEN LOOKING FOR FRESH GRASSLAND TO FEED THEIR STOCK.
IT WAS NOT ALWAYS SO. BEFORE WORLD WAR I--BEFORE THE ADVENT OF THE KENYA-UGANDA RAILROAD, BEFORE THE TRAGIC SLAUGHTER OF WILDLIFE BY BRITISH AND GERMAN TROOPS--MASAILAND WAS A NATURALIST'S EDEN, A RICH STOREHOUSE OF VEGETATION, WHERE THE ROLLING THUNDER OF A MILLION ANIMALS SHOOK THE EARTH, AND THE AIR WAS SWEET AND HEAVY WITH A WILD...
YELLOW HEAT
UTHU GRIPPED THE FRAGILE WAR LANCE AND TOOK A TENUOUS STEP BACKWARD IN THE THICK SAVANNA GRASS, PRAYING TO HIS GODS THAT THE CROUCHING, AGATE-EYED FELINE WOULD NOT SPRING.
PENT-UP BREATH SHUDDERED BETWEEN HIS TEETH. A MUSCLE TWITCHED NERVOUSLY ON THE LIONESS' TAWNY BACK, THE BALEFUL EYES FIXED ALMOST MESMERICALLY ON HIM.
A LOW RUMBLE BEGAN IN THE BIG CAT'S THROAT. UTHUS FROZE. A FRESH WAVE OF SALTY PERSPIRATION WASHED HIS FOREHEAD AND BACK...
THE STEEL MUSCLED LOINS TENSED BENEATH THE SLEEK YELLOW COAT. THE BEAST WAS ABOUT TO LEAP--!

APOCRYPHA NOW!

writer Mark Russell • artist/cover Shannon Wheeler

Mark Russell & Shannon Wheeler's faithful-yet-irreverent approach to the Bible made their book GOD IS DISAPPOINTED IN YOU a modern cult classic. Now, by popular demand, they turn their attention to the best parts left out of the canonical Bible, including the Midrash, the Apocrypha, Gnostic Gospels, and more! And if you thought the BIBLE had some weird stuff in it...

KRAZY KAT

LOAC ESSENTIALS PRESENTS KING FEATURES VOL. 1: KRAZY KAT 1934

Certified Cool

writer/artist/cover George Herriman

Much attention has been paid to Herriman's Sunday full-page comics, yet it is in the daily Krazy Kat strips that the cartoonist most frankly illustrates many of his major themes, especially the shifting nature of social identity.

The 1934 strips reprinted in this book fit anyone's definition of "essential." They show Krazy Kat at top speed, ever-changing, endlessly inventive, with language that sparkles with double meanings and more in lines such as "his malady drills me to my sole."

The year includes homages to old jokes and bricks, followed by playful references to sex, drink, and even drugs. The daily Krazy Kat strips are often Herriman's most personal works and standouts in this year include Krazy Kat's attempt to write a memoir and the Kat's quietly waiting for the last leaf of "ottim" to fall (a tender scene that finds echoes in Charles Schulz's drawing of Linus admiring the last autumn's leaf stubborn spirit). It could also be argued that the daily is more accessible to the new reader. Herriman biographer Michael Tisserand provides an insightful introduction.

SNEAK PREVIEW

CAMP MIDNIGHT OGN

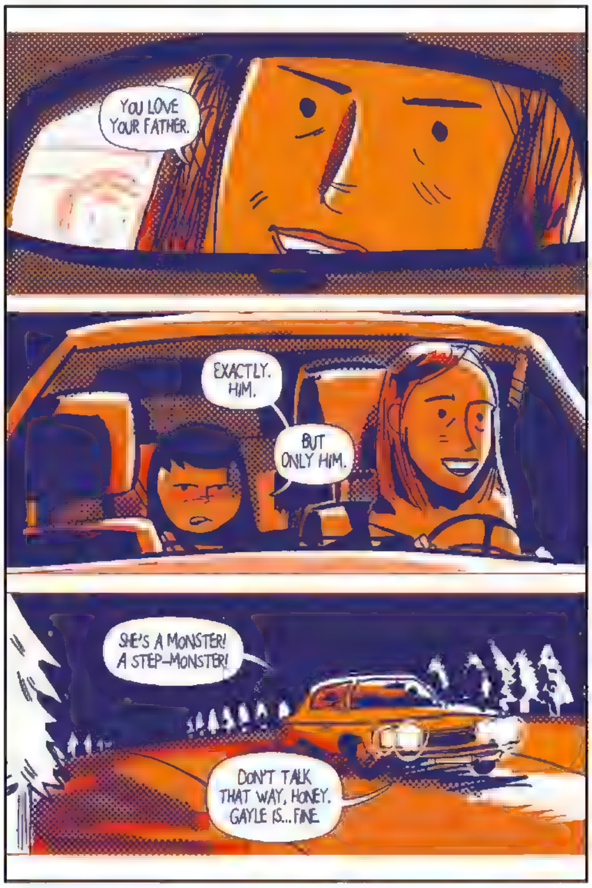
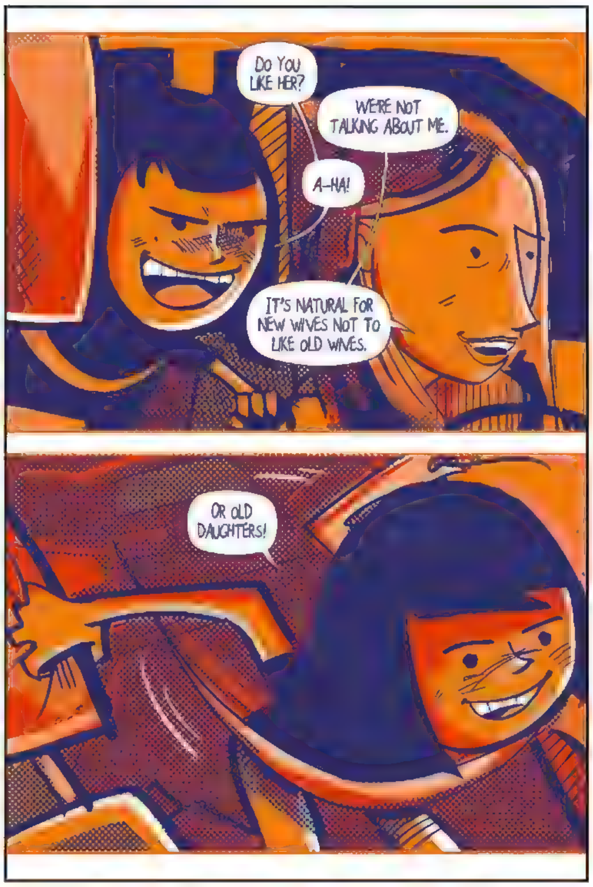
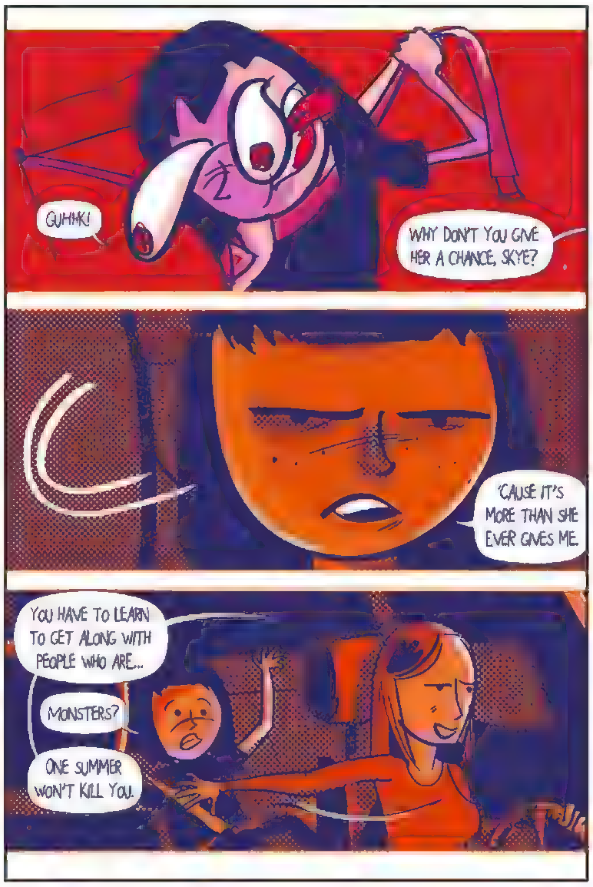
WHY DO I HAVE TO STAY WITH HIM THIS SUMMER?



YOU LOVE YOUR FATHER.
EXACTLY. HIM.
BUT ONLY HIM.
SHE'S A MONSTER! A STEP-MONSTER!
DON'T TALK THAT WAY, HONEY. GAYLE IS...FINE.



DO YOU LIKE HER?
WE'RE NOT TALKING ABOUT ME.
A-HA!
IT'S NATURAL FOR NEW WIVES NOT TO LIKE OLD WIVES.
OR OLD DAUGHTERS!



GUHMK!
WHY DON'T YOU GIVE HER A CHANCE, SKYE?
'CAUSE IT'S MORE THAN SHE EVER GIVES ME.
YOU HAVE TO LEARN TO GET ALONG WITH PEOPLE WHO ARE...
MONSTERS?
ONE SUMMER WON'T KILL YOU.

KIDS COMICS MONTH

Whether you're young or old, regardless of your tastes and interests, there's no denying the appeal of a well-written, well-drawn comic book or graphic novel. "All-Ages" doesn't have to strictly mean "For Kids Only"… especially when there's so much wonderful content being created today that's perfectly suited for anyone to pick up and enjoy.

This month PREVIEWS celebrates Kid Comics throughout the issue with plenty of new and backlist titles available. We've called out a few top titles here on this spread, but there are plenty more to be found throughout our Comics and Books sections — just look for the KIDS COMIC icon!

NOVO VOLUME 1 EXTENDED EDITION GN
(W/A/CA) Michael S. Bracco
Critically-acclaimed award-winning creator Michael S. Bracco crafts the beautiful existential sci-fi fantasy epic known as NOVO! Eight years after its initial release, this Extended Edition combines Birth and the first volume of NOVO. The Aquans and Terans spent their existences warring and decimating their populations until only one Aquan (a male) and one Teran (a female) remained. Together in love and desperation, they created NOVO, a savior born to a world that no longer had use for one. Searching for a meaning to his life, NOVO discovers a history that he will never be a part of and a future beyond his wildest dreams. (STL001093)

RED'S PLANET BOOK 1 GN

(W/A/CA) Eddie Pittman

Red's Planet, an intergalactic graphic novel fantasy series from award-winning cartoonist Eddie Pittman (writer/story artist for Disney's hit TV series Phineas and Ferb), is a nonstop adventure with a unique cast of characters unlike any you've ever seen before. Meet Red, a quirky, headstrong 10-year-old who longs to live in her own perfect paradise far away from her annoying foster family. But when a UFO mistakenly kidnaps her, Red finds herself farther away than she could have possibly imagined-across the galaxy and aboard an enormous spaceship owned by the Aquilari, an ancient creature with a taste for rare and unusual treasures. Before Red can be discovered as a stowaway, the great ship crashes on a small deserted planet, leaving her marooned with a menagerie of misfit aliens. With her newfound friend, a small gray alien named Tawee, Red must find a way to survive the hostile castaways, evade the ravenous wildlife, and contend with Goose, the planet's grumpy, felinoid custodian. Surely this can't be the paradise she's been hoping for. Available in softcover and hardcover editions. (STL000572) (C: 0-1-0)

FOWL LANGUAGE: I USED TO BE COOL AND DO COOL THINGS TP

(W/A/CA) Brian Gordon

The popular parenting webcomic featured on HuffPost, Buzzfeed, and Upworthy is now a book! Parenting can be a magical journey full of bliss and wonder... if you're on the right meds. For the rest of us, it's another thing altogether. Fowl Language takes an unvarnished look at the tedium and aggravation of parenting, while never forgetting that the reason we put up with those little jerks is that we love them so damn much. By poking fun at the daily struggles parents face, these cartoons help all of us feel less alone in our continual struggle to stay sane. (W) Duane Swierczynski (A) Rick Burchett (CA) Greg Smallwood
Before the cataclysmic events of "Bullet's Kiss" and "The Lonely Crusade," there was another Black Hood — Kip Burland, a former police officer who vowed to fight the crimes that he couldn't while wearing a badge. But what was he doing in Philadelphia the day he was accidentally shot and killed by Highway Patrolman Greg Hettinger? You'll find out in this special flashback issue starring the Original Hood and learn the shocking truth about what really happened that day. This is an essential one-shot you don't want to miss, featuring art from classic Black Hood artist Rick Burchett! (STL001085)

WAR STORIES VOL 4 TPB

Retail Price: $19.99 US

Writer: Garth Ennis
Cover & Art: Tomas Aira
MR, FC, 144pp

> "In all historical fiction, the ability to reference places and dates is very nice, but having a real perspective is something else entirely, and Ennis has an acute one."
> —Comics Alliance

About: Garth Ennis' visionary series reaches deep into the recesses of history and finds the most spine chilling tales of conflict and war throughout the modern era. This new volume delivers powerful stories that illustrate the horror and humanity within the violence and misery. In this tome are two stories written by Ennis and illustrated by Thomas Aria including:

Our Wild Geese Go: "T'was England bade our wild geese go, that small nations would be free..." In the Second World War, any Irishman wanting to fight the Nazis had to join the British army- the Republic of Ireland having declared neutrality when the war began. Now, a small unit of Irish soldiers join the advance into Germany—where the going is rough and the enemy nowhere near surrender. And old tensions remain from Ireland's own struggle for independence, as well as the bloody civil war that followed.

The Tokyo Club: How do you join The Tokyo Club? Simple. You climb into your single seat, single engine fighter- loaded with fuel and ammunition- and fly 700 miles across the open Pacific until you reach the mainland of Japan. There you fight off any enemy aircraft attempting to hit the American bombers you're escorting to their targets. Still alive? Now comes the fun part. You fly another 700 miles back home to your airstrip on Iwo Jima, fuel running lower and lower, nothing but ocean for miles around. Any battle damage you've suffered will reduce your chances even further. Make it back and you're in the club. And more good news: you get to do it all again tomorrow.

This volume collects War Stories #10-15 of the ongoing comic book series.

About: Robert Black has seen the cracks in reality and felt the cold touch of the supernatural. Now as the horrors that lie below the surface of our mundane world start to flood into his consciousness his hold on the construct of sanity begins to slip from his grasp. Alan Moore and artist Jacen Burrows have created the most realized version of Moore's Lovecraftian vision ever published. Fans and classical scholars have flocked to the pages of Providence to decipher the many layers of story being told in this masterpiece. Moore has written every cover detail, every single page, and every nuance of this work to create an unforgettable series. Fans of Moore's immersive style and meticulous grasp of storytelling will be thrilled to add this essential piece of comics history to their collections! How does Alyss Heart of Wonderland fare after the creation of Everqueen, as described in ArchEnemy, the third volume of the best-selling The Looking Glass Wars trilogy? With difficulty. Fending off political assaults from rival suit families, struggling to maintain diplomatic relations with the tribes of Boarderland, Alyss is more vulnerable than ever before. After she barely escapes an attempt on her life, no longer sure whom to trust, she aligns with controversial new allies in order to keep Wondertropolis safe and prevent havoc on Earth. And yet the fight, the battle, finds her — as it seemingly always does — and Alyss discovers that all decisions, even the right ones, have consequences. (STL000920)

JOYRIDE #1 (OF 4)

Written by Jackson Lanzing & Collin Kelly
Illustrated by Marcus To Cover by Marcus To (Wraparound)
$3.99 • 32 Pages • Full Color

WHAT'S TO LOVE

After working together on Hacktivist and Maze Runner: The Scorch Trials original graphic novel, the writing duo of Jackson Lanzing and Collin Kelly (Batman and Robin Eternal) join forces once again with artist Marcus To (New Warriors, The Flash: Season Zero) for their first creator-owned series that takes readers to the stars in this space epic with a punk-rock attitude, perfect for fans of Young Avengers and Runaways.

WHAT IT IS

In the future, Earth sucks. The stars have been blocked out for so long that people have forgotten there was anything else besides the dumb World Government Alliance watching over them, training children to join the militarized Allied Youth and eliminating all resistance with a giant ray gun. Uma Akkolyte is a girl who shoots first and leaps before she looks, and when she gets a strange message from outside the barricades of SafeSky, she jacks a spaceship and punches through the stratosphere with an unlikely crew of teens who are totally not ready for what they're about to find.

Written by Hope Larson
Illustrated by Brittney Williams
Covers by Brittney Williams (Wraparound), Marguerite Sauvage (INCV)
$3.99 • 32 Pages • Full Color

WHAT'S TO LOVE

From Nancy Drew to Veronica Mars, we really dig girl detectives! Hope Larson (A Wrinkle in Time: The Graphic Novel) and Brittney Williams (Patsy Walker, A.K.A Hellcat!) present the newest gal sleuth on the block with Goldie Vance, an exciting, whodunnit? adventure that mixes the fun of Eloise with the charm of Lumberjanes.

WHAT IT IS

In a timeless story, 16-year-old Marigold "Goldie" Vance lives at a Florida resort with her dad, who manages the place. Her mom, who divorced her dad years ago, works as a live mermaid at a club downtown. Goldie has an insatiable curiosity, which explains her dream to one day become the hotel's in-house detective. When Charles, the current detective, encounters a case he can't crack, he agrees to mentor Goldie in exchange for her help solving the mystery utilizing her smarts, random skills, and connections with the hotel staff and various folks in town.

Written by Jim Campbell, Amalia Levari
Illustrated by Jim Campbell, Cara McGee
Covers by Jim Campbell, Veronica Fish (Subscription), Shane-Michael Vidaurri (INCV)
$3.99 • 32 Pages • Full Color

WHAT'S TO LOVE

Pat McHale's Over the Garden Wall aired as Cartoon Network's first-ever original animated miniseries and has continued gathering fans ever since. The great response to our one-shot and follow-up limited series prompted us to return to the eerie Unknown for more stories in this new, ongoing series! We're thrilled to have Jim Campbell returning to join forces with fellow show writer Amalia Levari and artist Cara McGee for two original stories in each issue.

WHAT IT IS

Over the Garden Wall is now an ongoing series! In this kickoff issue, Wirt and Greg might have escaped the Beast's grasp and made it out of the Unknown, but some things can't be forgotten. Greg returns to Dreamland at night, where the silly creatures who live there help him on his adventures. Then, dive back into the early days in the Unknown where young Anna, the daughter of the Woodsman, must learn to survive in the woods on her own.

WHAT'S TO LOVE

We had such a blast with the Adventure Time with Fionna & Cake mini-series created by Natasha Allegri (Bee & PuppyCat) that we couldn't wait to rejoin our favorite heroes in an all-new story from Jen Wang (In Real Life) and Britt Wilson (Adventure Time with Fionna & Cake) that features the actual Cryptozoic card game, Card Wars, which itself was created from the game in the show. So meta!

WHAT IT IS

Cake is a Card Wars champ who can't be beat, and Fionna...is really tired of getting beaten! They set off in search of a challenger who can really test Cake's mettle. When they stumble across some gamer slugs, they think they've hit the jackpot, but these guys have never heard of Cake and refuse to even play with her! Collects the complete mini-series!

HELLINA #1

Regular Retail Price: $5.99
Cover & Art: Gabriel Andrade
Writer: Jai Nitz
MR, Color, 64 pages, #1 of 3

About: Giant-size 64 pages to celebrate Hellina is back! We kick off the 21st anniversary of the boldest of bad girls with an all-new series! Experience a whole new beginning for Hell's enforcer, given a fresh take by seasoned pro Jai Nitz and stunning sensual artwork by Gabriel Andrade (Crossed +100, Uber). But she is no less of a sexy slayer than before, in fact now she is Hell's Adjudicator, sent in to clean house when creatures-of-the-night get out of control. Heaven and Hell waged war for millennia, spanning worlds and dimensions, with a clear good vs. evil story to be told in scripture and in holy houses. Until Hell won. That was five hundred years ago, and Hell has been running things ever since. Not only are the forces of darkness needing to be kept in check, but now a few of Heaven's angelic horde have started appearing. This time, they are fighting as dirty as they need to get back into power. For those who love a whip-cracking, ball-busting, smoking-hot, demonic executioner, this series is for you! Making it even better, we add in an enormous classic covers gallery and the first chapter of the legendary Hellina vs. Pandora series, in color for the first time!

Don't miss the amazing array of sexy covers with this issue including a Regular Cover by Gabriel Andrade, Wraparound Cover by Renato Camilo, Sacrilege Cover by Raulo Caceres,

THE FOURTH PLANET #1

(W) Fred Kennedy
(A/CA) Mikko Maciaszek

The Fourth Planet is the brand new series from Chapterhouse Comics that The Examiner called "evocative and truly cosmic." The quarterly, written by Fred Kennedy and brilliantly illustrated by Miko Maciaszek, sets the stage where a stolen warship loaded with runaway human slaves crashes onto a planet with three warring races, the most advanced of which has only just begun using gunpowder weaponry. Vastly outnumbered, will the humans become the very thing they were running away from? The warship Lightstorm has crashed on an alien planet. Even though its occupants seek only survival, they become unwillingly entangled within the constant warring of the planet's native species. (STL001106) (C: 0-0-1)

ALONE VOLUME 5: EYE OF THE MAELSTROM GN

(W) Fabien Vehlmann
(A/CA) Bruno Gazzotti

It is time to find out the truth about the Vanishing. It's a sad day for the Campton kids: they've just discovered Dodzi's lifeless body at the bottom of a building, shot once in the chest. Convinced that whoever killed him must have come from the red zone — the no man's land marked out by the monkeys' cairns — Leila and Ivan decide to send an expedition there. But none of the children could possibly imagine what expects them inside the zone, no more than what will happen back at the camp. (STL001278) (C: 0-1-1)

LUCKY LUKE 58
THE DALTONS' STASH

LUCKY LUKE VOLUME 58: THE DALTONS' STASH TP

(W/A/CA) Morris

Why are the Daltons trying to get inside a penitentiary? Transferred to a new penitentiary, the Daltons are put in a cell with Fennimore Buttercup, a counterfeiter who soon begins to regret having such noisy cellmates. To get rid of the annoying brothers, he sends them on the trail of his — made-up — stash: $100,000 buried at the foot of a boulder in Red Rock Junction. One prison escape later, pursued by Lucky Luke, they discover to their horror that the spot they seek is inside another penitentiary! (STL001279)

THE MARQUIS OF ANAON VOLUME 3: THE PROVIDENCE GN

(W) Fabien Vehlmann
(A/CA) Mattieu Bonhomme

Sailors are known to see the devil in everything. Is that what haunts the decks of the Providence? Jean-Baptiste Poulain is back in Paris when the Countess of Almedia invites him to join her salon in Andalusia. Her offer is too good to refuse, and they're soon on their way to San Fernando by sea. During a storm, they narrowly avoid a collision with a drifting ship, the Providence. When they go aboard the derelict, all they find are corpses, and yet Jean-Baptiste is convinced he'd seen a survivor. (STL001280) (C: 0-1-0)

NAMIBIA VOLUME 1 GN

(W) Rodolphe (A/CA) LEO

Namibia, 1949. Three years after the Nuremberg trials, a white man is photographed in the middle of a corn field: it's Reichsmarschall Hermann Göring, who's supposed to have committed suicide in his cell. Worried about the geopolitical implications of the discovery, MI5 sends Kathy Austin to Namibia. There, along with her new partner, a grumpy, misogynistic, racist old war horse, Kathy begins an investigation where the threat of Nazi resurgence soon makes way before more frightening — and unexplainable — phenomena. THE SURVIVORS VOLUME 3 GN

(W/A/CA) LEO

Separated by a temporal shift phenomenon, the human survivors are together again. But where some, such as Marie and Alex, have only spent a few weeks on their new planet, for the others it's been six years! Six years they've spent with the Holorans, fellow castaways belonging to a felinoid race, one of whom Marie had rescued from hostile aliens. The Holorans have a plan: to use the very quantum anomalies that cause those temporal jumps in order to leave the planet. (STL001281) (C: 0-1-0)

VALERIAN VOLUME 11: THE GHOSTS OF INVERLOCH GN

(W) Pierre Christen
(A/CA) Jean-Claude Mezieres

Spatio-temporal agents must preserve Earth's future, always. But is it still possible? Galaxity's orders are rather bizarre, lately. Laureline has been left on stand-by in a Scottish castle. Valerian, haunted by recurrent nightmares, has been sent to capture a sentient being as if it were a wild animal, an unsavory task, to say the least. And on Earth in the 1980s, members of the military and political elites are descending into madness one by one. What future does our planet still have, and who's so bent of changing it? SIR APROPOS OF NOTHING: GYPSIES, TRAMPS, AND THIEVES GN

(W) Peter David (A/CA) Robin Riggs

From the pages of the acclaimed fantasy series rides Sir Apropos of Nothing, a cynical knight who thinks far less of the art of chivalry than he does the art of raking in gold. Written by the novel series' creator, the man in black may be fleeing across the desert, but Apropos is riding across the desert on a horse with no name, seeking out a buried treasure, and running afoul of an acclaimed and slightly familiar tower that's somewhat dark. FORGIVE ME FATHER #1

(W) John Ulloa (A) Ulises Carpintero, Greg Narvasa (CA) Patrick Reilly

Forgive Me Father is a crime novella that tells the story of three different characters bound by a singular fate. What happens when the shepherd loses his flock? When Father Pedro's faith in his God and church is lost after the violent death of a young friend, he finds himself alone with a despair and anger that can barely be contained. He dreams of finding solace in the arms of a runaway girl. Is she his angel of redemption or a fantasy he's made-up? Will helping her break the chains of her past be a path to true salvation — or damnation? (STL001296)

GOLD KEY: ALLIANCE #1 INTERVIEW w/ PHIL HESTER

FEATURED ITEM

KEITH DAVIDSEN: Gold Key: Alliance marks the first time that you've ever written for super-hero heavyweights Turok, Solar, and Magnus. Was there any one character in particular that you were especially eager to tackle, and what interests you most about that character?

PHIL HESTER: Well, my son is working on his masters in paleontology, so Turok was definitely the one I wanted to tackle the most. I have an authoritative source for all things dinosaur, and I finally get to look cool is his eyes! In all honesty, I found something to connect with in every one of those characters. You don't really know where an assignment will take you, though. I have to say Magnus has always been my favorite, mostly because of Russ Manning, and Dr. Solar has always left me cold, but once I started writing them, Solar came to the fore.

KD: When you think of each of the Gold Key characters, what do you feel defines them? Who are these characters?

PH: I'll try to say this without spoiling anything in the larger story, but I see each of them as an archetype of specific aspect of heroism. Magnus is the quintessential defender. Turok is the epitome of the explorer. Solar is the exemplar of the creator. Outside of that sort of meta perspective, each has a personality that shines through no matter the incarnation. Magnus is consistently upbeat and positive, Turok level-headed and bold, Solar contemplative and aloof. It's fun to have those differing personalities clash as they work toward the same goal.

KD: When you look back at your vast body of writing work, what theme parallels do you find between Gold Key: Alliance and other projects? What will Phil Hester fans be eager to see in the new project?

PH: Of course, I always find some way to make a super hero story cosmic, or at least deeper than a simple punch-up. I have a hard time writing an epic adventure without the protagonist meeting god, or her inner self, or the avatar of some abstract idea. Too many Jim Starlin comics as a kid, I guess! I hope you'll find the sense of action and pacing that can sweep you along like you're reading an old school Marvel book (like my work on Firebreather and Wonder Woman), but with a distinctly modern sense of humor (like my runs on Mythic and Golly), and at the same time delivering that deeper message I can't seem to avoid (The Coffin, The Darkness).

KD: Bringing the Gold Key universe together – the "Big Three" Turok, Solar, and Magnus, plus some unexpected new cast members – is the kind of world-building that so many fans love to see. What are your thoughts about defining a universe, the challenges and appeal?

PH: Each of these characters is so great on their own, but I think one way they fail to connect to modern audiences is that they all happen in some other time or place. I felt that if they all took place here and now, on our earth as we know it, they would mean more to current comics readers. Plus, they can now team up without any convoluted machinations to send anyone forward or backward in time.

KD: Let's give the Gold Key fans a little something to drool over! Without giving too much away, please finish this statement: "Man, I can't wait until the fans read the sequence that..."

PH: "...shows them just what a dinosaur hunter does for a living in the twenty-first century!"

After the Twilight of the Gods, the world is precariously uncertain – and Xena and Gabrielle have been missing from it for twenty-five years. Even without Livia, the power of Rome is growing: Caesar is determined to conquer by lies what he can't conquer by force, and the people at its edges know what's coming. (All roads lead to Rome, and Rome is hunting.) Xena and Gabrielle scramble to stop him before they have to wage war against a man they once called a friend. But along the way, Xena will have to confront her past against a rogue band of women warriors, and Gabrielle, whose secret visions are becoming prophecy, will have to protect Xena – at any cost.

XENA #1 INTERVIEW w/ GENEVIEVE VALENTINE

FEATURED ITEM

KEITH DAVIDSEN: Xena: Warrior Princess #1 marks a return to adventure for the cult favorite character. What do you see as the essential components that make up a good Xena story?

GENEVIEVE VALENTINE: One of the things I love so much about Xena is how many different essential components there are to choose from! It was a show that understood the full range of its adventures, and knew exactly how to set off comedy with drama, or play in a sandbox of mythology and alternate history. But one of my favorite things about Xena has always been that no matter how alternate that history got, or how goofy the comedy, there was a sense of weight and substance from the characters at its center that we could come back to. Aphrodite is amazing comic relief, but her soft spot for Gabrielle gives her dimension; Xena's fight scenes are epic, but we see enough of her past to understand the hard lessons that have gotten her here — as skilled as she is, fighting for the things she fights for now. I think that sense of "anything goes" that still never outstrips the characters is really at the heart of any Xena story.

KD: The dynamic between the Warrior Princess and her trusty companion Gabrielle remains one of the most beloved aspects of the franchise. What are your thoughts on those characters, how they relate with one another in the setting of the new series?

GV: I think they're totally necessary for one another at this point in their lives, both as characters and in terms of storytelling. We see so much of Xena's past that her arc is essentially a parabola — from the thrill of her wild days to the lowest point of her sense of self, and that long climb back. Obviously, Gabrielle is a huge part of why her life takes the shape it takes after they meet. And though Gabrielle meets Xena a lot earlier in her own journey, we see her go through the gauntlet repeatedly, and change in ways that sometimes surprise her. Of course, so much of why they work together is that Xena's reticence and cynicism is balanced by Gabrielle's compassion, but it isn't just blind optimism — it's that compassion is a choice she makes over and over, and Xena recognizes that in a way that matters. And where we pick up from the show canon, they've been through so much that we have all that history to draw on; they both have intelligence and will within disparate personalities that have by now made room for one another, and it really makes them a great pair to write for.

KD: The latest Xena adventure takes place in the historical setting of Caesar's Roman Empire. What inspired that time period and place, and how does that setting complement or challenge our heroines?

GV: I think some of Xena's best storytelling has been the things that cost them, and the show always made great use of both the gods and the Caesars in that way; power corrupts no matter how long you're going to live. But there's also that sense that Xena was more comfortable in the realm of the singular battle than in dealing with the ways large groups of people give in to power; it was actually easier to fight the gods than it was to outmaneuver Julius Caesar. And that weight of the characters' history is so present after Gabrielle and Xena deal with young Octavius and then meet him after being gone a lifetime and seeing that, sure enough, he's as fallible as any other Caesar when it comes to the lure of power. The wake of this very eventful return to the timeline felt like a great place to explore some of the chaos of this Empire.

KD: Without giving too much away, what can you tell us about the enemy (or enemies) that Xena will face?

GV: Xena and Gabrielle will definitely realize early that Rome's power is going to be a major force in this new world — becoming an Empire is a messy business, and it's a beast with a thousand heads. But Gabrielle's visions have also returned, which force her to decide how much of the future to share with Xena, while Xena will be coming face-to-face with some warriors from her past — and though she's been gone twenty-five years, not all of them have forgiven or forgotten. (They also have to sneak into a casino, but the biggest enemy there is the décor.)

KD: Xena has such a fiercely loyal fan base. How does that affect your approach to storytelling? Would you consider it both a blessing and a burden?

GV: I think anything that's made such an impact on audiences comes with a certain awareness; you know you're telling a story with characters who mean a lot to people. And inevitably, different aspects of the story will appeal differently — we all have our favorite beats. But from all I've seen from Xena fans online, it's a passionate group of people who love both the goofiness and the fearlessness of what makes the show so special, and I'm really excited to be exploring these characters and their world, from murderous political propaganda to heartbreak to undercover casino capers — because it's Xena, and you can!

Marla Drake, the untamable costumed adventurer known as Miss Fury, fought Nazis with wild abandon not just during World War II, but - due to a scientific mishap - throughout time, as well. Now trapped in the 1943 of a parallel universe, she comes face-to-face with her mirror double, a hedonistic murderess whose soul was never saved by the love of a good man. Realizing what her life could be like now that she has lost her own beloved Matthew Chandler, she surrenders to the slimy promises of Schauburger, a rogue (and dead) Nazi agent whose ghost can alter the timestream and set things right. The cost? Killing the alternate Marla Drake, the Pharaoh of Time, the Mafia superhero The Mob, a US Naval Intelligence nuclear physicist... and the list goes on. No matter how hard she tries, people just seem to want Miss Fury to murder for them. How many must die so that she can become a good person again?

The secret of VARGR is revealed, and it means that Bond has to descend into a nightmare scenario – alone. Just his gun and his skills versus a murderous conspiracy to turn Britain into a testing zone for death drugs. Dynamite Entertainment proudly concludes the debut storyline to the first ongoing James Bond comic book in over 20 years!

"Ian Fleming's James Bond is an icon, and it's a delight to tell visual narratives with the original, brutal, damaged Bond of the books." – Warren Ellis

COLLECTS ISSUES 1-4!

Horror icons from two universes collide as Ash Williams, the chainsaw-armed Chosen One of the small and big screen, crosses paths with the supernatural superheroine Vampirella in a story set during the events of the cult classic film, Army of Darkness!

When Ash misspoke the incantation to acquire the Necronomicon, an unholy book written in blood, the spell ripped Vampirella – a force for good, despite her blood-hungry fangs – from her own time and back to 1300 AD. Infected by Deadite magic, she stalks the halls of Lord Arthur's castle, unable to control her thirst. Even if that time-lost chucklehead Ash can free her of the demonic mutation, can he convince his allies – primitive screwheads that they are – that she shouldn't be burned at the stake?

"An epic clash between the iconic figures of Ash and Vampirella... Downright groovy!" – Horror News Network

"Rahner definitely knows all of Ash's and Vampirella's mannerisms and ticks." – Graphic Policy

Convinced that she is in Central City, The Spirit's search leads him into unexpectedly fragrant territory. Meanwhile, Ebony and Sammy manage to find a lead to tracking down the mysterious assassin sent by Vaas, the cold-blooded Pinky Fingers. The explosive finale is coming... one that might change The Spirit's world forever! This sensational revival of Will Eisner's iconic hero is brought to you by the creative talents of legendary author Matt Wagner and the visual team of artist Dan Schkade and colorist Brennan Wagner.

LITTLE DEE AND THE PENGUIN GN
(W/A/CA) Christopher Baldwin
After Little Dee's park ranger dad dies, she has no relatives to take her in. She's facing an uncertain future in an orphanage when, luckily, she meets a motley crew of animals deep in the forest. They're on the run: a pair of hungry polar bears are after the penguin, and the vulture, the dog, and the bear are determined to protect her. They're not interested in adopting a tiny human. But Dee loves them — especially Ted the bear — and she won't let them go. Instead, she hops on their getaway plane and joins them on an around-the-world adventure. But by the end of their journey, they've become a family — exactly the kind of family Little Dee needs. (STL000413) (C: 0-1-0)

MARY WEPT OVER THE FEET OF JESUS HC
(W/A/CA) Chester Brown
The iconoclastic and bestselling cartoonist of Paying for It returns with a polemical interpretation of the Bible that will be one of the most controversial and talked-about graphic novels of 2016. Mary Wept over the Feet of Jesus is the retelling in comics form of nine biblical stories that present Chester Brown's fascinating and startling thesis about biblical representations of prostitution. Brown weaves a connecting line between Bathsheba, Ruth, Rahab, Tamar, Mary of Bethany, and the Virgin Mother and reassesses the Christian moral code by examining the cultural implications of the Bible's representations of sex work. DARKWING DUCK #1

Recommended by Matt Demory

He is the terror that flaps in the night! He is the joker that throws away the key, the hairball that clogs your drains, the fingernail that scrapes the blackboard of your soul. he is DARKWING DUCK!

It's been a while since Disney's Darkwing Duck cartoon ended and we last checked in on our favorite crime fighting mallard. Unfortunately, for the citizens of St. Canard crime hasn't taken a holiday in our absence — but neither has Darkwing! This April, Joe Books is taking us back to St. Canard and reintroducing us to fan favorites Launchpad McQuack, Gosalyn Mallard, and Drake Mallard aka Darkwing Duck with a new monthly series.

Writer Aaron Sparrow captures the essence of the original show while updating the concept for 2016 and James Silvani's artwork is simply spot on. As a kid that grew up in the 80's and early 90's this book is dripping with nostalgia and putting me back to a time when cartoons like Duck Tales and Tale Spin were must see TV for my generation.

If you're looking for a book suitable for all ages that is fun and witty for both kids and parents that grew up with the original show be sure to check out Darkwing Duck #1 from Joe Books.

ED THE HAPPY CLOWN HC

(W/A/CA) Chester Brown

As the world around him devolves into madness, the eponymous Ed escapes variously from a jealous boyfriend, sewer monsters, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and a janitor with a Jesus complex. Brown leaves us wondering, with every twist of the plot, just how Ed will get out of this scrape. The intimate, tangled world of Ed the Happy Clown is definitively presented here, repackaged with a new foreword by the author and an extensive notes section, and, as with every Brown book, astonishingly perceptive about the zeitgeist of its time. Another classic Moomin story reworked in full color, with a kid-proof but kid-friendly size, price, and format. Moominmamma wakes up one morning to find a flying saucer has crash-landed in her cabbage patch. There's a strange machine dangling out of it that seems like it could be used to fix their broken radio, but when Moominpappa starts fiddling with it, he turns himself and Moomin invisible! Each knob on the machine causes strange and unlikely events to transpire, until the Martian finally recovers possession of its property. (STK678933) (C: 0-0-1)

I NEVER LIKED YOU SC

(W/A/CA) Chester Brown

A harrowing memoir of loss and the struggle to connect, Brown's story is told with a spare poetic elegance. A self-absorbed teenager, Chester Brown strays into the difficult territory of friendship and early love while at home there is a slowly building crisis over his mother's mental health. Emotionally intense, the story veers unsteadily between the extremes of eerie detachment and sudden desperate outbursts of need. A complex and disturbing true story told with a nuanced, queasy visual style that lingers in the mind long after the book has been put away. (STK339333)

PAYING FOR IT GN

(W/A/CA) Chester Brown

Paying For It combines the personal and sexual aspects of Brown's autobiographical work (I Never Liked You, The Playboy) with the polemical drive of Louis Riel. Paying for It offers an entirely contemporary exploration of sex work-from the timid john who rides his bike to his escorts, wonders how to tip so as not to offend, and reads Dan Savage for advice, to the modern-day transactions complete with online reviews, seemingly willing participants, and clean apartments devoid of clichéd street corners, drugs, or pimps. Complete with a surprise ending, Paying for It continues to provide endless debate and conversation about sex work. (STK529039)

THE MAKING OF HC

(W/A/CA) Brecht Evens

Pieterjan is invited to a small town as an honored guest. From the moment he arrives, things start going wrong, and since no one seems ready to step in, Pieterjan takes over the show. He decides to build a giant garden gnome as a symbol of Flemish identity, but the construction process brings buried tensions to the surface as the other artists become jealous of Pieterjan's authority. In The Making Of, Evens delves deep into the petty tensions, small misunderstandings, and deadpan humor that pervade modern relationships. (STK467839)

THE WRONG PLACE GN

(W/A/CA) Brecht Evens

Rendered in vivid watercolor where parquet floors and patterned dresses morph together, Wrong Place revolves around oft-absent Robbie, a charismatic lothario of mysterious celebrity who has the run of a city as chaotic as it is resplendent. With a hand as sensitive as it is exuberant, Brecht Evens's stunning debut English graphic novel captures the strange chemistry of social interaction as easily as he portrays the fragmented nature of identity. 4 KIDS WALK INTO A BANK #1 (OF 4)

Recommended by Jonathan McKinney

Let me tell you something right off the bat, Matthew Rosenberg is a name to watch in 2016. He writes compelling stories with a knack for making the characters feel all too real. Rosenberg's We Can Never Go Home stole the show in 2015, picking up nominations for a slew of awards along the way, and his next title, 4 Kids Walk into a Bank, looks to continue that trend.

Without giving too much away, 4 Kids Walk into a Bank focuses on Paige and her ragtag group of young friends who find themselves mixed up with some shady characters. Paige's dad is hiding a secret, and the group does whatever it takes to keep him out of trouble. In a story that is a little bit of The Bank Job meets The Little Rascals, you'll find yourself asking what lengths you would go to in order to keep your loved ones and friends safe.

The aptly named Tyler Boss, colorist for We Can Never Go Home, puts on a show with the art and design. Fans of David Aja's work on Marvel's Hawkeye will find solace in Boss's pencils. Every single line and detail is perfectly placed, with impressive panel layout.

4 Kids Walk into a Bank* is a must-have for your pull list. Jump on board early so that you can be the first to tell your friends about it!

THE NAMELESS CITY VOLUME 1

(W/A/CA) Faith Erin Hicks

Every nation that invades the City gives it a new name. But before long, new invaders arrive and the City changes hands (and names) once again. The natives don't let themselves get caught up in the unending wars. To them, their home is the Nameless City, and those who try to name it are forever outsiders. Kaidu is one such outsider. He's a Dao born and bred, one of the latest occupying nation. Rat is a native of the Nameless City. At first, she hates Kai for everything he stands for, but his love of his new home may be the one thing that can bring these two unlikely friends together. Let's hope so, because the fate of the Nameless City rests in their hands. Available in softcover and hardcover editions. (STL000514) (C: 0-1-0)

NOTHING CAN POSSIBLY GO WRONG GN

(W) Prudence Shen
(A/CA) Faith Erin Hicks

You wouldn't expect Nate and Charlie to be friends. Charlie's the laid-back captain of the basketball team, and Nate is the neurotic, scheming president of the robotics club. They are friends, until Nate declares war on the cheerleaders. After both parties are stripped of their funding on grounds of abominable misbehavior, Nate enrolls the club's robot in a battlebot competition in a desperate bid for prize money. Bad sportsmanship? Sure. Chainsaws? Why not. Running away from home on Thanksgiving to illicitly enter a televised robot death match? Of course! (STK528409)

Introvert Frankie Neumann hates his life, and understandably so. He's got a weird, tutu-wearing sister, Lou, and even weirder parents, Bridget and Brett — Frank Sinatra and Dr. Frank-N-Furter impersonators, respectively. Though he has secret artistic aspirations of his own, his over-the-top family makes him want to stay in the background. After his shift at the pizzeria one night, Frankie meets David and Rory, cousins and errand runners for the mysterious Uncle Epic, a legendary anonymous street artist and Frankie's absolute idol. Little could Frankie dream that his new adventures with Uncle Epic would lead to the perfect opportunity to strike back at his insufferable sister for a lifetime of torture — until things go haywire! DARK SOULS #1

Recommended by Trevor Richardson

PREPARE TO DIE. When I picked up the first Dark Souls video game, I laughed out loud at those words printed in bold lettering across the back of the box. Dark Souls is considered one of the most difficult games ever made, and for good reason. Behind the expansive fantasy world of Lordran there is a singular message: you can't take it with you. Unlike most games, Dark Souls omits checkpoints or an in-game save menu, instead only allowing you to save your game at a handful of bonfires which are often hard to locate. In other words, when you die – and you will die – you lose all your progress, resurrecting as an undead warrior at the last bonfire visited, totally stripped of all goodies and experience points. This loss of time and energy means the stakes are higher than pretty much any other game you're likely to find and that taunt, "Prepare to die," hangs over your head as equal parts promise and warning.

This April, in conjunction with the release of the third installment in the franchise, Titan is releasing a Dark Souls comic series with a fresh story by George Mann (Doctor Who), art by Alan Quah (Orphan Black), and covers featuring art from the new game. With so much of this world remaining mysterious due to the game's sparse use of dialogue, this is a chance to explore Lordran in a way that was previously only possible by taking reading the backstory of all the items you find in the game.

Perhaps most exciting of all is the idea of a comic about an undead hero fighting his way back to life, able to die again in any issue, who can lose it all but keeps on going. In other words, this is a comic that brings to life all the highs and lows gamers felt while playing Dark Souls.

DOCTOR WHO: THE NINTH DOCTOR #1

Recommended by Jonathan McKinney

Back by popular demand, April 2016 sees the release of Titan's new ongoing Doctor Who: The Ninth Doctor series, starring Christopher Eccleston's Doctor!

In 2005, the Doctor Who franchise was revitalized with Eccleston leading the way for a whole new generation of Whovians. Eccleston's time as the doctor on television was short-lived, but the ninth Doctor is fondly remembered by fans of the show, and paved the way for all new adventures.

Cavan Scott returns to expand on the adventures started in his 9th Doctor mini-series that began in 2015, and is joined this time by artist Adriana Melo. The Doctor, Rose, and Captain Jack travel off-world to solve a mystery, only to find a planet that has been plagued with "Doctormania!"

Titan has built up an exciting "Who-niverse" line of books with limitless potential for story. In May, the publisher will release their Doctor Who: Four Doctors Free Comic Book Day special, with the ninth Doctor joining in on the fun this time around.

Their Doctor Who line is one to pay close attention to, as the now four Doctor Who ongoing series are all leading to something gargantuan down the road in 2016...

PEPLUM GN

(W) Blutch, Edward Gauvin
(A/CA) Blutch

The man known as Blutch is one of the giants of contemporary comics, and Peplum may be his masterpiece: a grand, strange dream of ancient Rome. At the edge of the empire, a gang of bandits discovers the body of a beautiful woman in a cave; she is encased in ice but may still be alive. One of the bandits, bearing a stolen name and with the frozen maiden in tow, makes his way toward Rome — seeking power, or maybe just survival, as the world unravels. Thrilling and hallucinatory, vast in scope yet unnervingly intimate, Peplum weaves together threads from Shakespeare and the Satyricon along with Blutch's own distinctive vision. O/A HILDA AND THE BIRD PARADE GN

Getting used to life in the big city is proving difficult for Hilda. The diminutive explorer is still missing the enchanted valleys and magical friends that surrounded her home in the fjords. But tonight is different; tonight is the night of the mysterious Bird Parade. Finding herself lost on the streets of Trolberg, Hilda befriends a talking raven. Together they encounter all manner of bizarre creatures from outcast Trolls to ferocious Salt Lions and deadly Rat Kings — maybe the city isn't so boring after all. As the pair try to find their way home, it becomes clear that the amnesiac raven has an important mission to attend to, if only he could remember what it was. (STK642965)

HEARTTHROB #1

CHRISTOPHER SEBELA (W) ROBERT WILSON IV (A/CA)

NICK FILARDI (C) JAMIE MCKELVIE (CA)

32 Pages, $3.99, RELEASE DATE: 04/13/16

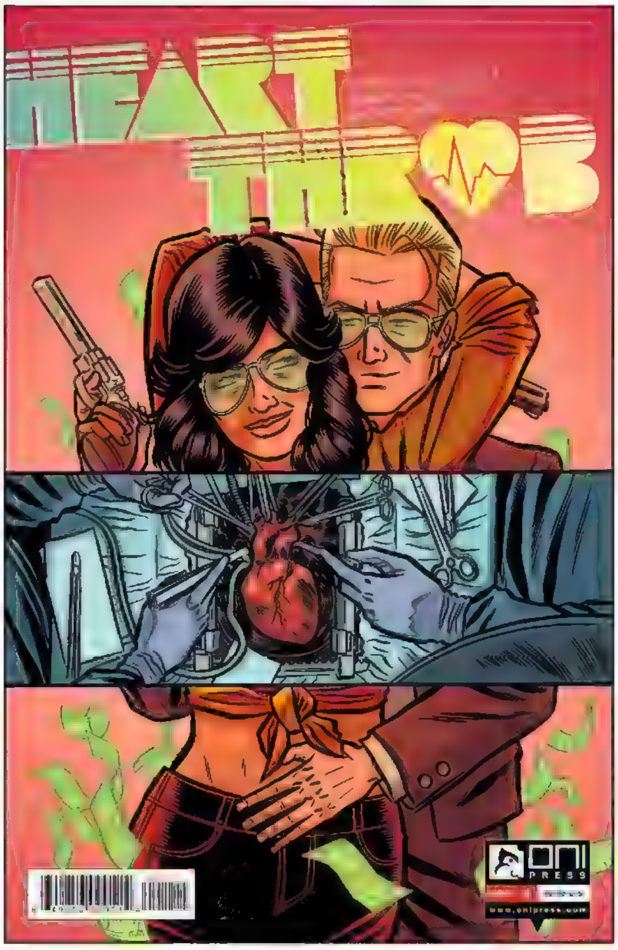
A new series about bank heists and thieving hearts from writer Christopher Sebela (Welcome Back), artist Robert Wilson IV (Bitch Planet), and colorist Nick Filardi (Powers).

Callie Boudreau hasn't been herself lately. After a lifetime sidelined by illness, she's rescued by a miracle cure in the form of heart transplant surgery, but the life she returns to doesn't fit her anymore. Besides the morally questionable job, the crappy boyfriend and the crippling hospital bills, Callie finds herself developing new tastes, unfamiliar urges and a mouth like a sailor. As she balances what she has to do with what she wants to do, a mystery man shows up to teach her that instead of waiting for her new life, she should go out and steal it.



"Crime, romance and open heart surgery. Highly (cardiac) arresting."

KIERON GILLEN, THE WICKED + THE DIVINE

"Heartthrob is like a person you shouldn't fall in love with—it might seem wrong but it feels so right."

SAM HUMPHRIES, CITIZEN JACK, STAR-LORD

"Heartthrob tells a terrific story that is both moving and creepy: a refreshingly difficult protagonist whose situation is literally heart-wrenching, paired with the half-man-half-metaphor who—twice—offers her a chance for a new life.

JEN VAN METER, HOPELESS SAVAGES, THE DEATH-DEFYING DOCTOR MIRAGE

"I like when creators take a high concept higher and pull more out of the premise than readers expect. Sebela and R-4 go their own way, and I want to see where they take Callie Boudreau."

JEFF PARKER, BATMAN '66

"Heartthrob is everything indie comics should be. It's beautiful, unique, has a ton of humanity, and is the perfect amount of f*ed up."

THE ODYSSEY OF SGT. JACK BRENNAN GN
(W) Bryan Doerries
(A) Joëlle Jones & Various
Jack Brennan is a Marine Corps sergeant whose infantry squad has been cleared to return home from a grueling deployment to Afghanistan. A few years prior, Sergeant Brennan lost one of his closest friends — a young combat veteran — to suicide and has vowed to do everything in his power to keep his Marines from a similar fate. On their last night in-country, Brennan shares his version of The Odyssey to help prepare his squad for the transition back to the home front. By retelling Homer's epic about Odysseus' difficult journey home after the Trojan War, and weaving in the stories of contemporary Marines, The Odyssey of Sergeant Jack Brennan powerfully conveys the profound challenges today's veterans face upon returning from combat even as it tells "the oldest war story of all time." BRIT-CIT NOIR

BRIT-CIT NOIR GN

(W) John Smith, Leah Moore
(A) John Reppion, Colin MacNeil

The British equivalent of Mega-City One, Brit-Cit is a crowded metropolis that sprawls across southern England, the future Scotland of Cal-Hab and the South Welsh Peninsula. Buttressed by its own "Cursed Earth," it is a bizarre vision of Britain old and new. Even before the Atomic Wars, Britain had more ghosts and ghouls per square miles than anywhere in the world — and now Brit-Cit is the focal point for an abundance of weird, occult occurrences. Detective Inspector Jericho Strange heads up the Endangered Species Squad, a unit within Brit-Cit's Justice Department charged with investigating arcane cases. His exposure to a supernatural artifact called the "Black Mirror" has left him with a face his new partner, Becky Darke, will never forget… Collecting Strange & Darke: New Blood & Storm Warning: The Relic. AETHER & EMPIRE #1

Recommended by Travis Reid

Æther & Empire is a compelling and immersive story that propels you into a breathtaking steampunk world following an airship in the service of Her Majesty. The story spotlights the experience of Lieutenant Brisbon, Griffin, and the crew aboard Her Majesty's Airship. Though they are at the mercy of their captain's orders, all instruction is thrown out the window as instincts take authority. Many pages reveal incredible detail on the ships of that era, which set the stage for a beautiful yet mysterious story.

Ripe with adventure, this new series from BlueJuice Comics is bound to keep you on course for many surprises.

In the mid-1930s, Irmina, an ambitious young German, travels to London. There she meets Howard Green, one of the first black students at Oxford. Like Irmina, Green is looking for an independent existence — and a love affair blossoms between two outsiders. But the relationship comes to an abrupt end when Irmina, constrained by the political situation in Hitler's Germany, has to return to Berlin. Political events accelerate, and her letters to Howard are returned unopened. It will be 30 years until she receives another. Based on a true story, this moving and perceptive graphic novel conjures the oppressive atmosphere of wartime Germany and reflects on the passive complicity of its people with sympathy and intelligence. KIDS LOVE COMICS! They are naturally drawn to the details in the pictures, which make them want to read the words. Comics beg for repeated readings and let both emerging and reluctant readers enjoy complex stories with a rich vocabulary. But since comics have their own grammar, here are a few tips for reading them with kids:

GUIDE YOUNG READERS Use your finger to show your place in the text, but keep it at the bottom of the speaking character so it doesn't hide the very important facial expressions.

HAM IT UP! Think of the comic book story as a play, and don't hesitate to read with expression and intonation. Assign parts or get kids to supply the sound effects, a great way to reinforce phonics skills.

LET THEM GUESS. Comics pvrovide lots of context for the words so emerging readers can make informed guesses. Like jigsaw puzzles, comics ask readers to make connections, so check a young audience's understanding by asking, "What's this character thinking?" (But don't be surprised if a kid finds some of the comics' subtle details faster than you).

TALK ABOUT THE PICTURES. Point out how the artist paces the story with pauses (silent panels) or speeded-up action (a burst of short panels). Discuss how the size and shape of the panels carry meaning.

ABOVE ALL, ENJOY! There is of course never one right way to read, so go for the shared pleasure. Once children make the story happen in their imagination, they have discovered the thrill of reading, and you won't be able to stop them. At that point, just go get them more books, and more comics.

The TOON Books collection is designed to take young readers step by step into a love of reading.

A TOON BOOK BY GEOFFREY HAYES

BENNY AND PENNY IN THE BIG NO-NO! TP

(W/A/CA) Geoffrey Hayes

Benny and his sister Penny know it's wrong to sneak into someone else's backyard, but their mysterious new neighbor — or is it a monster? — may be a thief. They go snooping and discover a lot about themselves — and a new friend! Best-selling children's artist Geoffrey Hayes enchants early readers with his charming and subtle storytelling. In this lively caper, the artist's small-scale ice take on a large-scale issue with enormous comics mastery. (STK615159)

From New York Times-bestselling author Ace Atkins comes the graphic novel adaptation of his Edgar Award-nominated story featuring New Orleans music historian/detective Nick Travers. It's Christmas in New Orleans. For many, it's the best season of the year. But instead of spending time with the people he cares about, Nick Travers is investigating the death of his friend, Fats. At first it appears that Fats took his own life, but Nick quickly discovers that the saxophone is missing from Fats' apartment. He soon learns that there is more to the story than a simple suicide, and the woman who Fats had been paying to keep him company may hold the answers. (STK698128)

DIVINITY II #1 (of 4)

VALIANT'S FIVE-TIME SOLD-OUT SENSATION RETURNS!

FROM NEW YORK TIMES BEST-SELLING WRITER

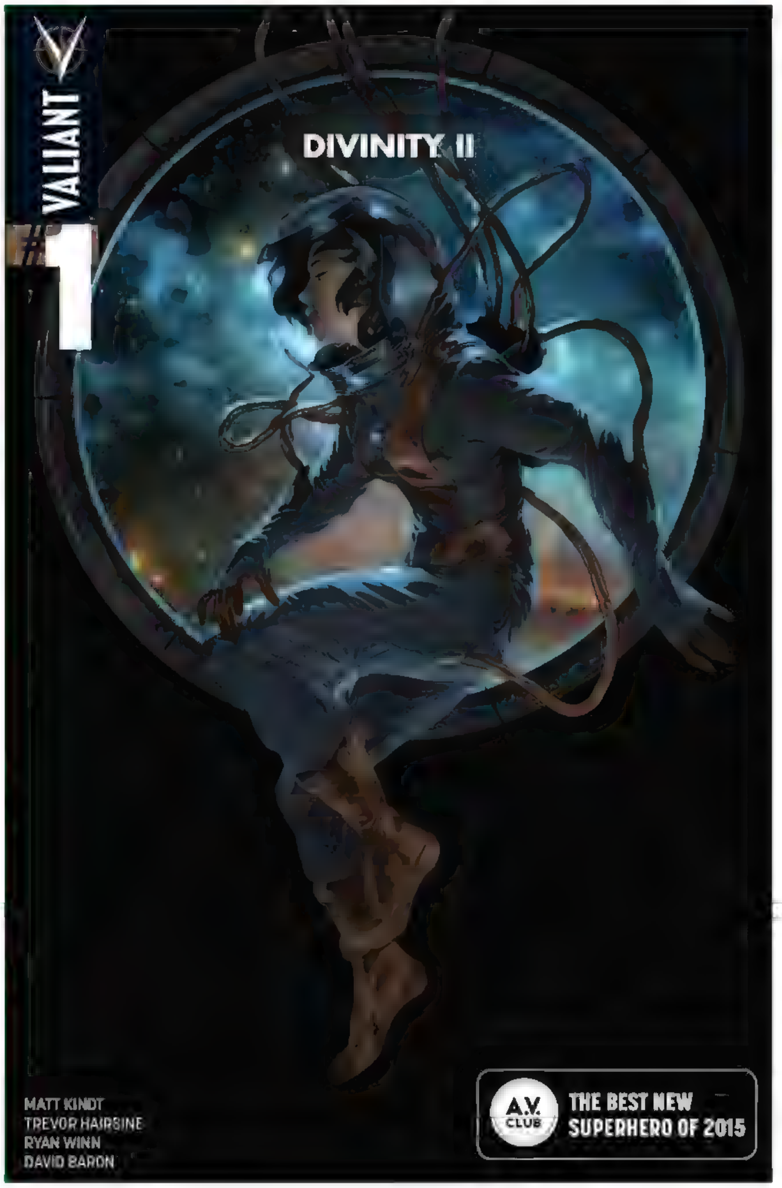
MATT KINDT

(NINJAK)

AND ACCLAIMED ARTIST

TREVOR HAIRSINE

(DIVINITY)



The much-anticipated follow-up to the five-time sold-out series that The Onion/A.V. Club calls the "Best New Superhero of 2015" is here! The acclaimed creative team returns for a perfect new jumping-on point into the expansive sci-fi saga that shook the world!

At the height of the Cold War, the Soviet Union - determined to win the Space Race at any cost - green lit a dangerously advanced mission. They sent three cosmonauts farther than anyone has gone before or since. Handpicked orphans with no connections to Earth, trained as devout Communists, and restricted from having families, they became lost in the stars and encountered something Unknown... Something that changed them.

Long thought lost and erased from the history books, Abram Adams was the first to return. The few that have been able to reach him believe him to be a deity. They say he can bend matter, space, and even time to his will. But, even with limitless powers, he is concerned only with the secret love he hid away from his superiors and the unborn child he never met.

Now, Miska, the female co-pilot of the group, has also returned to Earth...but, unlike Abram she had no secret family. Unlike Abram, she still believes in the Communist ideal. And, unlike Abram, she intends to play a very real role in the return of Soviet glory.

Earth is about to meet a new god. And she's a Communist. How long can it be before the nations of Earth bend before DIVINITY?

WRATH OF THE ETERNAL WARRIOR VOL. 1: RISEN TPB

New York Times best-selling writer Robert Venditti (BOOK OF DEATH, X-O MANOWAR) and visionary artist Raúl Allén (NINJAK, Hawkeye) forge a new legend for Valiant's master of war!

For five millennia, the Eternal Warrior has shaped history at the end of his sword. He's razed empires, toppled civilizations, and broken armies as an immortal soldier in service to the Earth.

But now, the Eternal Warrior has been torn from the world he once protected and finds himself stranded in a hostile alien landscape unlike any he's faced before. Separated from his earthly environs, can history's deadliest soldier survive a realm far older, far deadlier, and far more ruinous than anything he's ever encountered? Beyond Earth lies eternity...

In a city so dismal it's known only as "the Hole," a clan of Sorcerers has been plucking people off the streets to use as guinea pigs for atrocious "experiments" in the black arts. In a dark alley, Nikaido found Caiman, a man with a reptile head and a bad case of amnesia. To undo the spell, they're hunting and killing the Sorcerers in the Hole, hoping that eventually they'll kill the right one. But when En, the head Sorcerer, gets word of a lizard-man slaughtering his people, he sends a crew of "cleaners" into the Hole, igniting a war between two worlds.

With the postmark of Emma's last letter — and his heart — guiding him, William makes a bold journey across the Atlantic to begin his search for Emma in the town of Burnley in the United States. Even if he finds her among the hundreds of new arrivals from England, the life ahead of them will not be an easy one. The broken engagement of the Viscount's daughter has set him against the Joneses, and it will take time to rebuild those business and social relationships. Even more difficult will be convincing society that Emma is worthy to join their ranks despite her humble origins. With dogged persistence, patience, and a little help from Mrs. Mölders, Emma and William aim to carve out a place in this world where their love can thrive at last! Falling back on rule two and surrounding herself with new friends in the art club, Peppi still can't help feeling ashamed about the way she treated Jaime. Things are already awkward enough between the two, but to make matters worse, he's a member of her own club's archrivals—the science club! And when the two clubs go to war, Peppi realizes that sometimes you have to break the rules to survive middle school!

Penelope — Peppi — Torres, a shy new transfer student, wants nothing more than to fit in and find a place among her fellow artistically inclined souls. The last thing she wants is to stand out. So when she bumps — literally — into quiet, geeky, friendly but friendless Jamie Thompson, and is teased as the "Nerder's Girlfriend," Peppi's first embarrassed instinct is to push him away and run. Though she later feels guilty and wants desperately to apologize for the incident, Peppi always ends up chickening out. She has no reason to speak to him, anyway, until she ends up bumping — figuratively and continually — into Jamie again! Will these two opposites ever see eye-to-eye, let alone become friends? STARGATE: ATLANTIS — BACK TO PEGASUS #1

The wait is over, Stargate fans! American Mythology, a new publisher with an award-winning team of veteran artists, writers, and creative contributors, has partnered with MGM to continue the adventures of Stargate: Atlantis.

In the final moments of the series finale, John Sheppard, Ronon Dex, Teyla, Dr McKay, and the rest of the Atlantis crew crash land back on Earth and glide into San Francisco Bay, finally coming home. Yet, many questions remained unanswered and the main conflict of the show went unresolved. Debuting this April, Stargate: Atlantis — Back to Pegasus is the chance to finally resolve old conflicts and watch beloved characters rise to fresh challenges.

The first issue picks up three months after the series finale with an Atlantis crew eager to go back and finish what they started but, not unlike those many false starts from the past six years, still Earth-bound as government oversight prevents them from returning to fight the Wraith. In typical Stargate fashion, however, a threat to both galaxies will force the crew into action whether the bureaucrats like it or not.

Beginning with a recap of the television series and ending on a cliffhanger, fans of the show and new readers alike will enjoy this first installment of the renewed Atlantis Expedition, with all the action and witty banter that made the show so fun to watch.

BACK TO THE DRAWING BOARD: THE MAD WORLD OF PETER ARNO HC

(W) Michael Maslin
(A) Michael Maslin, Peter Arno
The first-ever biography of Peter Arno, the legendary cartoonist who created what we now know as the New Yorker cartoon. The New Yorker's founding editor, Harold Ross, may have been exaggerating when he referred to Peter Arno as "the greatest artist in the world." Many may be familiar with examples of Arno's art, but few know the story of his extraordinary life and career. Arno's outsized life and career weren't without considerable challenges. In fact, he declared no one could do any good creative work unless he was "mad at something." Arno had plenty of inspiration in that respect and it fueled a roller coaster career which finally receives its full due. (STL000599)

THE JOKER: A SERIOUS STUDY OF THE CLOWN PRINCE OF CRIME SC

Along with Batman, Spider-Man, and Superman, the Joker stands out as one of the most recognizable comics characters in popular culture. This is the first academic work to provide a comprehensive study of this villain, illustrating why the Joker appears so relevant to audiences today. The Joker debuted in Batman #1 (1940) as the typical gangster, but the character evolved steadily into one of the most ominous in the history of sequential art. Scholars from a wide array of disciplines look at the Joker through the lens of feature films, video games, comics, politics, magic and mysticism, psychology, animation, television, performance studies, and philosophy. SETH: CONVERSATIONS SC

(A/CA) Seth

Canadian cartoonist Gregory Gallant, pen name Seth, emerged as a cartoonist in the fertile period of the 1980s, when the alternative comics market boomed. Though he was influenced by mainstream comics in his teen years and did his earliest comics work on Mister X, a mainstream-style melodrama, Seth remains one of the least mainstream-inflected figures of the alternative comics' movement. These interviews, including one career-spanning, definitive interview between the volume editors and the artist published here for the first time, delve into Seth's output from its earliest days to the present. BILL THE BOY WONDER: THE SECRET CO-CREATOR OF BATMAN HC

(W) Marc Tyler Nobleman
(A/CA) Ty Templeton

Every Batman story is marked with the words "Batman created by Bob Kane." But that isn't the whole truth. A struggling writer named Bill Finger was involved from the beginning. Bill helped invent Batman, from concept to costume to character. He dreamed up Batman's haunting origins and his colorful nemeses. Despite his brilliance, Bill worked in obscurity. It was only after his death that fans went to bat for Bill, calling for acknowledgment that he was the co-creator of Batman. Based on original research, Bill the Boy Wonder is the first-ever book about the unsung man behind the Dark Knight. (STK466715)

BOYS OF STEEL: THE CREATORS OF SUPERMAN SC

(W) Marc Tyler Nobleman
(A/CA) Ross MacDonald

Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster, two high school misfits in Depression-era Cleveland, were more like Clark Kent — meek, mild, and myopic — than his secret identity, Superman. In 1934, they created a superhero who was everything they were not. It was four more years before they convinced a publisher to take a chance on their Man of Steel in a new format — the comic book. The author includes a provocative afterword about the long struggle Jerry and Joe had with DC Comics when the boys realized they had made a mistake in selling all rights to Superman for a mere $130. (A/CA) Dave McKean

This Dr. Seuss-esque rhymed adventure takes a hilarious romp through an eleven-year-old's mop of colorful character-filled, crazy, wavy hair. Bonnie makes a friend who has hair so wild there's even a jungle inside of it! Bonnie ventures through the crazy hair, but she may need more than a comb to tame her friend's insane mane. Crazy Hair is a fantastically fun tale, illustrated by the astoundingly talented Dave McKean. FEARLESS
A Cartoonist's Guide to Life and Drawing
Robb Armstrong
Creator of the Syndicated Comic Strip Jump Start

FEARLESS: A CARTOONIST'S GUIDE TO LIFE HC

Robb Armstrong has been described by People Magazine as "one of the hottest young cartoonists in America." His award-winning comic strip, JumpStart, is syndicated in more than 300 newspapers in eight countries. But his life wasn't always so charmed. Born and raised in a rough neighborhood in West Philadelphia, Robb was one of five fatherless kids living in a cramped apartment where the electric bill didn't always get paid. How did he get through all of these tragedies to the happy life? By drawing funnies. Weaving together his personal stories with simple drawing tutorials and original illustrations, Fearless is both a compelling read and an inspirational lesson on life. (STL000648) (C: 0-1-0)

GEEK PARENTING
WHAT JOFFREY, JOR-EL, MALEFICENT, AND THE MCFLYS TEACH US ABOUT RAISING A FAMILY
STEPHEN H. SEGAL AND VALYA DUDYCZ LUPESCU

GEEK PARENTING HC

(W) Stephen H. Segal, Valya Dudycz Lupescu

Earth's Mightiest Parents offers advice to geeks, nerds, fanboys/girls of all types, taken from the movies, TV shows, comics, and other pop-culture sources they love. It's a combination spell book, prime directive, and holy grail for parents who want to teach their kids to stay strong and conquer the world. This collection of pithy mini-essays and charming illustrations offers short, sweet, and deep thoughts about parenting, as exemplified by the most memorable parent-child pairings found in geek pop culture. Vader and Luke, Peter Parker and Aunt May, Spock and Sarek, even Pinnochio and Gepetto — Earth's Mightiest Parents reveals the profound child-rearing advice (and mistakes) hidden in geek pop culture. JEDI ACADEMY
By New York Times bestselling author
Jeffrey Brown

STAR WARS: JEDI ACADEMY HC'S

(W/A/CA) Jeffrey Brown

Roan's one dream is to leave home and attend Pilot Academy like his older brother, father, and grandfather. But just as Roan is mysteriously denied entrance to Pilot Academy, he is invited to attend Jedi Academy, a school that he didn't apply to and only recruits children when they are just a few years old. That is, until now. These inventive novels follow Roan's studies at Jedi Academy where, under the tutelage of Master Yoda, he learns that he possesses more strength and potential than he could have ever dreamed. STAR TREK MAGAZINE #56
2016 is a massive year for Star Trek fans, and The Official Star Trek Magazine continues its ongoing mission to be your essential guide to Gene Roddenberry's ever-expanding universe. With a new movie hitting cinemas this summer, a new TV series in production, and a 50th anniversary to celebrate, we'll feature all the latest developments in the worlds of Trek. We interview original series legend George Takei, Enterpise engineer Connor Trinneer, and Kirk autobiography scribe David A. Goodman. We'll also find out why every starship needs a miracle worker, and discover how Star Trek was saved — the first time! Available in Newsstand and PREVIEWS Exclusive editions. ORPHAN BLACK SEASON 1 TRADING CARDS

Cryptozoic is excited to add Orphan Black to its trading card line in 2016! The series focuses on character Sarah (Tatiana Maslany) as she assumes the life and identity of another woman to whom she is identical, only to learn that the woman was her clone and was caught in a dangerous plot with the wrong people. The Orphan Black Season 1 trading cards will feature a 72-card base series as well as 4 chase sets (Character Bios, Quotes, Felix's Loft, and Comic Covers), authentic autograph and wardrobe/dual wardrobe cards, foil variants and printing plates, all to be collected perfectly in our limited edition binders. This set will be among the first Cryptozoic release to introduce its brand new trading card "Photo Set" configurations. Photo Sets are non-random collections featuring one complete set of the series' base cards and standard chase card sets. No "hits" will be included in these boxes. These are a perfect gift for the super-fan in your life, and pair ideally with a collectible binder to store the series in. Keep your complete set in the full color 1" 3-ring binder, which features a trompe-l'oeil rendering of Cosima's laptop computer and contains an exclusive card replica of the Dyad Institute swipe key. 5 cards per pack, 24 packs per box. Item has been previously solicited in PREVIEWS Plus. (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in the United States, Canada, and U.S. Territories.

ALIENS SERIES 6: ALIEN ISOLATION ACTION FIGURES

Series 6 in NECA's best-selling Alien action figure collection is a tribute to Alien Isolation, the acclaimed video game that continued Ripley's story through her daughter, Amanda. Look for two versions of Amanda (one in a jumpsuit and one in a spacesuit) and the Isolation Xenomorph. Amanda Ripley (Jumpsuit) comes with motion detector, flamethrower and backpack accessories. Amanda Ripley (Torrens Spacesuit) features a removable helmet and comes with a handgun accessory. The Isolation Xenomorph features a bendable tail. Figures range from 7" to 10" tall. Each is highly articulated and entirely authentic to the video game. (STK698715) Item has been previously solicited in PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in January 2016. (6338/51366) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in the United States, Canada, and U.S. Territories.

ALIENS SERIES 7 ACTION FIGURES

NECA's best-selling Alien action figure line continues with new favorites! Series 7 includes the long-awaited release of brand new figures from Alien vs. Predator, which are the perfect companion pieces to the currently available AvP-based Predator figures. The Warrior Alien and Grid Alien feature over 30 points of articulation and bendable tails, and stand over 9" tall. Also in this series is our very first concept figure based on the original prototype suit for the "Big Chap" Alien in the 1979 movie. H.R. Giger originally had the suit cast in a translucent flesh-tone but, in one of the many technical hurdles that had to be overcome to bring his creature to life on screen, repeated difficulties with the material forced the change to the coloring seen in the movie. The figure features 25 points of articulation and bendable tail, and stands over 9" tall. (STL000295) Item has been previously solicited in PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in May 2016. (6338/51600) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in the United States, Canada, and U.S. Territories.

ALIENS: GENOCIDE – RED QUEEN ULTRA DELUXE ACTION FIGURE

The Aliens action figure family gets a new royal member! Hot on the heels of NECA's massive Xenomorph Queen, the equally spectacular Red Queen is based on her appearance in the classic Aliens: Genocide comic book mini-series published by Dark Horse. The Ultra Deluxe Red Queen stands over 15" tall and is over 30" long, with over 30 points of articulation, including a spectacular poseable tail. She's completely in scale with NECA's Aliens action figure line, and features a new head crest and all-new deco. Includes a display stand and two different interchangeable inner mouths. Some assembly required. (STK698714) Item has been previously solicited in PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in January 2016. (6338/51364) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in the United States, Canada, and U.S. Territories.

ALIEN: EGG & FACEHUGGER 1/1-SCALE FOAM/LATEX PROP REPLICA

Transform any room into a deadly alien breeding ground with this Life Size Xenomorph Egg, complete with its own eerie lighting and life size facehugger! As seen in the 1986 horror classic Aliens, this full-sized replica stands almost 36" tall, and articulated flaps with a wire armature allow you to actually open the top folds of the egg. The included full-size facehugger has a bendable tail, so you can pose it anywhere... waiting to drop on unsuspecting prey from overhead, or simply lurking inside the egg. The Life Size Xenomorph Egg is made of detailed, hand-painted foam and stands on its own. A switch activates the LED lights inside the base to create a menacing, otherworldly glow effect. Requires 3 AAA batteries, not included. (STL000289) Item has been previously solicited in PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in April 2016. ALIENS: PULSE RIFLE BROWN BESS REPLICA

Hollywood Collectibles is proud to present the officially licensed Aliens Stunt Pulse Rifle! One of the most Iconic movie weapons ever to blast its way onto the big screen, the Pulse Rifle is the weapon of choice for the US Colonial Marines in James Cameron's Oscar-winning Aliens. Several "Hero" Pulse Rifles were created, mainly for the live firing sequences, but most of the time what you see on screen are lightweight "stunt" versions; the hero versions weighed in at a hefty 20 pounds or so! To create the definitive Pulse Rifle, Hollywood Collectibles obtained one of the few surviving Hero Pulse Rifles, meticulously measured and photographed every detail and then painstakingly recreated this exactly. The result is the most accurate replica ever produced, a "must have" for any Aliens fan! The Stunt version Pulse Rifle remains faithful to the ones seen in the movie, with accurate shrouds the same dimensions as the "hero" versions, but has no moving parts and weighs only 5 1/2 pounds, ideal for display or Cosplay! Comes complete with themed tabletop display stand. Item has been previously solicited in PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in April 2016. (7740) (C: 0-1-2)

CHRONICLE: BUCK ROGERS' STARFIGHTER 1/24-SCALE STATUE

Chronicle Collectibles is proud to present this model of the Buck Rogers Starfighter in 1/24-scale, cast from the original studio scale patterns. This piece comes with a stand and is fully wired to light the engines and the interior console. The Starfighter in this TV series is a class of heavily armed spaceships designed for maneuverability and speed. Due to its twin boom construction, some have described it as a futuristic version of the World War II P-38 Lightning. The ion fusion engines can launch and land the craft under its own power creating the ability for use in reconnaissance missions and quick getaways. Although this spacecraft is piloted by one person, there a small cargo hold that can hold a second person in emergencies. Limited to 200 pieces worldwide, manufactured & distributed by Toynami, Inc. (STK699311) Scheduled to ship in May 2016. (4522/CLSSTARFTR) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only within the United States and U.S. Territories.

PACIFIC RIM: KAIJU MUTAVORE ULTRA DELUXE 7-INCH ACTION FIGURE

From the epic Pacific Rim movie, NECA's newest boxed, ultra-deluxe kaiju action figure is Mutavore! Just when the world thought that the alien invasion was over, this Category IV kaiju emerged from the breach and easily broke through Sydney's Anti-Kaiju Wall. At over 8" tall and over 6" wide, Mutavore is massive — larger than the previously released Trespasser, Scunner and Knifehead! This movie-accurate figure utilizes 100% new tooling, features over 30 points of articulation, and is to scale with NECA's Jaeger action figures. (STK698723) Item has been previously solicited in *PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in January 2016. POP CULTURE

SPOTLIGHT ON

FRANK FRAZETTA'S DEATH DEALER 1/6-SCALE ACTION FIGURE
A massive 50-foot wall of stone and wrought iron that separated a land of evil and the unholy was constructed by an ancient civilization thousands of years ago. An ancient tribe spoke of a demonic figure that lived among the dead. He was called The Death Dealer. He had eyes of fire, and was the embodiment of darkness. During the time of the Norsemen, around 1200 CE, the Death Dealer rode atop a large, black horse, and would execute any who visited this place with one fell swoop of his axe. The Death Dealer stands enormous, draped with a chain-link skirt, a dark cloak, and a horned helmet. Officially licensed and Authorized by Frazetta Jr. Enterprises, LLC, this figure of the Death Dealer comes with: an armed head, a Phicen first generation seamless male body with metal armature for 1:6 figure and 2 pairs of interchangeable hands (bare & gloved). The costume includes a cravat, shoulder strap, cape, breastplate with toothed accessories, black sleeveless robe, briefs, shoulder & wrist guards, midsection armor skull plate & belt, lower leg guards, a chainmail-like leg shirt with thigh guards attached and a battle footwear with spurs. Accessories include a battle sword & sheath, a machete and a shield. Comes with a base & stand in 4-color packaging. STAR TREK

FEATURED ITEM

ONE:12 COLLECTIVE STAR TREK: SPOCK ACTION FIGURE
The One:12 Collective is proud to present one of the most iconic and enduring characters in the pop culture lexicon: Spock from the original Star Trek series. Spock, powerfully portrayed by Leonard Nimoy in both the TV series and in the film franchises, embodied a new kind of TV hero: calmly logical, and cerebral but not completely devoid of human emotion. Digitally modeled to craft an uncanny actor likeness and assembled on a One:12 Collective body with over 28 points of articulation, this figure features a series accurate fabric uniform with leather-look screen matched boots to create an amazing collectable. This figure comes with: an alternate head with Spock's signature arched eyebrow; one "Live long and prosper" hand; one phaser holding hand; one Vulcan mind-meld hand; one Vulcan nerve pinch hand; one set of posing hands; one set of fists; a phaser; a communicator with flip up panel; a tricorder with opening top section; and a display base & posing stand. Each figure is packaged in a deluxe, fifth panel window box featuring character specific artwork and a translucent acetate slipcover. STAR TREK: THE NEXT GENERATION: KLINGON BAT'LETH 1/1-SCALE FOAM REPLICA
From NECA. Add extra authenticity to your costume with this soft foam replica of the most honorable weapon of all, the Klingon Bat'leth! Modeled on an actual prop used on screen in Star Trek: The Next Generation, the foam construction makes it perfectly safe — yet the detailed paint deco is so realistic you may mistake it for a lock of Kahless' own hair dipped in lava and twisted into a weapon to make empires tremble. Measures a massive 4' long. (STL000291) Item has been previously solicited in *PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in April 2016. TERMINATOR GENYSIS: BATTLE-DAMAGED T-800 1/2-SCALE BUST

Chronicle Collectibles is excited to share the 1984 Terminator Genisys Battle Damaged 1:2 Scale Bust. This product came to life using the CGI scan files as a base and a little work from our team of artists to match the battle damage from Terminator Genisys after the fight scene between the 1984 Terminator and the Guardian in Griffith Park. This product captures the nostalgia of seeing that young familiar face walk out of the shadows of the alley and the excitement of watching the nearly invincible Terminator get beaten. The battle damage is accurate to the film and the bust's T-800 eye is wired to light up. All of these units will be numbered. PIXI-HATSUNE MIKU COLLECTIBLE FIGURINE

From Collecto. The Pixi-Hatsune Miku project is of a previously unheard-of variety. Born from the encounter of Crypton Future Media, the creators of Hatsune Miku, and of artists that have ensured for many years the success of Pixi traditional metal figures in France. It is the very first Pixi project rooted outside the European continent, and Crypton Future Media's very first collaboration with famous French artists. This collaboration gave birth to a series entitled "Hatsune Miku - One Day in Paris" of 3 totally unique metal Miku figures, all hand-painted for a very limited premium edition currently available throughout the world only by preorder. Pixis are collectible figures sculpted, molded and then molten in metal before being hand-painted, an artisanal process which confers them their unique identity and style: a shiny aspect with a glossy coating giving them their tender and innocent look. Please Note: These are individually crafted and hand-painted figures that are made to order. (STK698745) Item has been previously solicited in PREVIEWS Plus. Scheduled to ship in March 2016. WARHAMMER 40,000
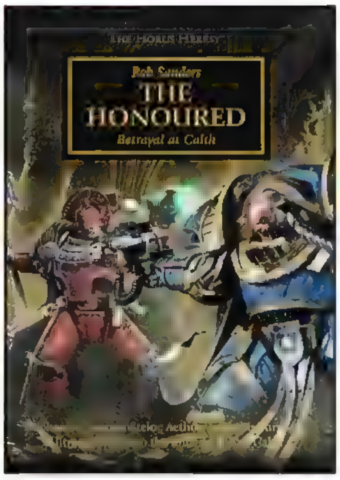
KHÂRN
EATER OF WORLDS

WARHAMMER 40K: KHARN: EATER OF WORLDS SC
(W) Anthony Reynolds
The Horus Heresy is over and the Traitor Legions have scattered, fleeing the wrath of a vengeful Imperium. The World Eaters are leaderless, their primarch missing and their greatest hero, Khârn, in a coma. The surviving World Eaters have turned upon themselves, the Butcher's Nails driving them to ever greater acts of berserk savagery. Poised on the brink of destruction, the Legion needs a leader. It needs Khârn, but will his awakening save them, or doom them entirely? (STL001683) (C: 0-1-2)
SC, 6x9, 240pgs, B&W..............$16.00



WARHAMMER 40K: THE HONOURED SC
(W) Rob Sanders
In the immediate aftermath of the Word Bearers' attack on Calth, survivors from both sides were driven into the subterranean arcology shelters by the tortured Veridian star. While their primarch Roboute Guilliman had planned for many seemingly unthinkable eventualities, the Ultramarines now face a new war in the underworld - could Steloc Aethon, renowned captain of 'the Honoured' 19th Company, be the one to lead them to ultimate victory over the traitors? Perhaps, if he can master his own bitter desire for vengeance! (STL001684) (C: 0-1-2)
SC, 6x9, 240pgs, B&W..............$16.50

TOTAL WAR
WARHAMMER
THE EMPEROR'S ARMIES
Chris Wraight

WARHAMMER: TOTAL WAR: THE EMPEROR'S ARMIES SC
(W) Chris Wraight
Mighty armies clash as the Empire's greatest heroes must unite to defeat ruinous threats from both within and without. Rebellion consumes the province of Averland and civil war looms, while orcs threaten to sweep out of the mountains and devastate the land. Suspecting the taint of Chaos behind the uprising, the Emperor Karl Franz sends two of his greatest champions to defeat the greenskins, thwart the Dark Gods and restore Imperial rule to Averland. This book collects together the novels Sword of Vengeance and Sword of Justice, plus the short stories "Feast of Horrors" and "Duty and Honour." (STL001686) (C: 0-1-2)

WARHAMMER: TOTAL WAR: LORD OF CHAOS SC
(W) Rob Sanders
Archaon faces unimaginable perils and devastating betrayals in his quest to assume the mantle of Lord of Chaos, the harbinger of the End Times. Archaon is the Everchosen, the warrior who will lead the final, cataclysmic assault that will usher in the End Times and the reign of the Ruinous Powers. But he was not always thus. Once he was a man, a devout servant of the warrior-god Sigmar. This book tells of his origins, and of his epic quest to claim the six great treasures of Chaos and bring death to the world as the Lord of Chaos. This book collects together the novels Archaon: Everchosen and Archaon: Lord of Chaos, plus the short story "Archaon: The Rise and the Fall." (STL001687) (C: 0-1-2)

WARHAMMER 40K: THE LAST WALL SC
(W) David Annandale
Despite the Imperium's best attempts to forestall the ork plague that is wreaking havoc in human space, an ork attack moon now hangs over Terra. As its malevolent presence gazes down at the Imperial Palace, terrified citizens run riot in the streets. In a last-ditch attempt to destroy the attack moon, a proletarian crusade is launched. Thousands of ships, large and small, head to the moon carrying billions of citizens, all eager to take the fight to the enemy. It seems the attack has a chance of success as the invasion force lands safely, but the orks have yet to spring their trap! (STL001685) (C: 0-1-2)

SMALLWORLD
IT'S A WORLD OF LAUGHTER AFTER ALL!

SMALL WORLD
(W) Philippe Keyaerts
Small World is a zany, light-hearted civilization game in which 2-5 players vie for conquest and control of a board that is simply too small to accommodate them all! Picking the right combination of fantasy races and unique special powers, players must rush to expand their empires — often at the expense of weaker neighbors. Yet they must also know when to push their own over-extended civilization into decline to ride a new one to victory. (STK390160) (C: 0-1-2)

PATHFINDER ADVENTURE PATH: HELL'S VENGEANCE PART 3: THE INFERNO GATE
The Thrice-Damned House of Thrune wants to seal the Inferno Gate, an uncontrolled portal to Hell, and the nefarious player characters are tapped to accomplish the task. To perform the required ritual, they must acquire key components held by a hellspawn thieves' guild and the Hellknight Order of the Pike, as well as battle angelic foes and the knights of the Glorious Reclamation. But before they can complete the ritual, the characters face betrayal at the hands of one of their closest allies. Will the villains defeat this traitor in their midst and close the gate to Hell—or better yet, make a deal with a devil for control of the portal—or will they become sacrifices to the Inferno Gate? The Inferno Gate is a Pathfinder Roleplaying Game adventure for 7th-level characters. PATHFINDER CAMPAIGN SETTING: HEAVEN UNLEASHED
Unleash the wrath of Heaven! Too often angels and their divine allies take a back seat to the heroics of virtuous adventurers. Pathfinder Campaign Setting: Heaven Unleashed reveals thirteen holy champions, from cassisian angels and serpentine couatls to empyreal lords and the heralds of the gods themselves. Within you'll join a monastery of the goddess of justice, make your case against courts of angelic arbiters, even explore the Heavenly realm of the demigoddess Andoletta—known across the planes as Grandmother Crow. These righteous paragons each have their own agendas, likely to either draw adventurers into otherworldly plots or pit them against sacred decrees. Each character includes a unique stat block, encounter map, details on locations across the planes, guidelines on setting up encounters for good or evil characters, and everything else you need to add a touch of the divine to your Pathfinder Roleplaying Game. PATHFINDER MODULE: IRE OF THE STORM
Unnatural storms rage above the rugged frontier town of Pridon's Hearth, far-flung Sargava's latest push to claim the lands' jungle wilds. Alongside the lashing rains and cascade of lightning comes a more terrestrial threat: lizardfolk. To survive, or even escape, the heroes must rally the entire community to weather the brutal press of the storm and establish themselves as local heroes before delving into unexplored jungle. Who built the strange ruins inland from the colony, and what significance do they hold to the lizardfolk that now prey upon Pridon's Hearth? Who are the mysterious Storm Kindlers? And most importantly, who can the heroes trust as their investigations uncover dark truths about the secluded colony's past? Designed for 1st-level characters! (STK698164) (C: 0-1-2)

HEY KIDS, COMICS!

BOBBY CURNOW AND SARAH GAYDOS SHAPE YOUNG MINDS WITH IDW'S ALL-AGES COMICS.

KID FRIENDLY kidsCOMICS.com

Bobby Curnow and Sarah Gaydos work behind the scenes at IDW Publishing to make sure their all-ages offerings come together without a hitch. As the editors of TMNT, My Little Pony, Walt Disney Comics and Stories, Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, and many more; Bobby and Sarah are in charge of some of the most fun kids comics on the shelves today.

These two editors make sure that the characters fans have loved for years still appeal to new readers, and that the stories longtime readers love are perfect for a kid's first comic. Not content to only work on the all-ages series, Bobby also works on Godzilla and Sarah edits almost every Star Trek comic that IDW releases.

PREVIEWS had the opportunity to speak with Bobby and Sarah about the work they do as editors for the diverse and popular all-ages series at IDW.

> "I WAS ALWAYS A COMIC BOOK NERD AND REALIZED THAT THERE WAS A GOOD DEAL MORE CREATIVE FREEDOM IN THIS MEDIUM."

PREVIEWS: Tell us a little bit about yourselves: How did you get into comics? What books or lines do you currently edit for IDW?

Bobby Curnow: I edit TMNT, My Little Pony, and Godzilla, along with various creator-owned titles. I started as an intern at IDW about six years ago after getting frustrated with the film industry. I was always a comic book nerd and realized that there was a good deal more creative freedom in this medium.

Sarah Gaydos: I knew I wanted to be in publishing, and took a job as a receptionist at WildStorm studios, with Editorial as my end goal. After lots of blood, sweat, tears -- and with the guidance of some very wonderful and supportive coworkers - - I made it! In terms of my own comic nerd-dom, I started reading comics in High School, after hearing about Slave Labor Graphic's Action Girl Comics, an all-ladies anthology headed by Sarah Dyer. I had no idea such things existed, and I was hooked. In terms of what I edit, things come and go, but I'm currently editing 99% of the Star Trek projects, all the Disney comics, and some fun stuff I can't talk about quite yet.

WHEW! TALK ABOUT PERFECT TIMING! THANKS, CAL.
YOU'RE WELCOME, MR. MOUSE!

P: There has definitely been a focus on kids and all-ages titles from publishers in the past year or so. What do you think sets IDW's kids comics apart from everyone else's?

BC: I think we make a real effort to capture the excitement and wonder that comes with discovering the joy of comics for the first time. In terms of our licensed books, it's hard to imagine a publishing company having a better relationship with licensors than IDW—we go to great lengths to make sure the parent companies know their books are in good hands.

SG: I agree with Bobby – capturing the excitement of the properties we license, plus executing with the level of quality IDW's known for. Just take a look at Bobby's TMNT books, or Transformers/GI Joe. You couldn't make books like that just anywhere. We apply that mindset to our kids books as well, and this past year has shown the formula works - - just look at our Disney line, which has been doing really well.

P: As an editor of kid's comics, what do you look for in a project?

BC: Fun is usually the first and finest ingredient in an all-ages book. So you want a story that is dynamic, moves briskly and captures the characters involved. Beyond that, having some sort of moral or educational component is good too, as long as it doesn't talk down to the audience.

SG: I again agree with Bobby. I'm always looking for a sweet spot between age appropriate and a bit aspirational/a bit of a challenge… plus a lot of fun, dynamic art that honors the source material.

P: What are some of the challenges that you face as a kid's comics editor?

BC: You have to keep a careful eye that things don't skew too mature or dark, but beyond that there aren't many aspects that are especially challenging. On a whole kid's comics are a ton of fun!

SG: With all licensed books, there's a challenge of dealing with many cooks in the kitchen, and keeping them all happy and working. With kid's comics, I try extra hard to keep the reader at the center of all things. I sometimes wonder if this is that kid's first comic…I really want to keep them coming back for more!

P: All-ages doesn't mean just "kids only" anymore. How do you try to capture the attention of kids and a more mature audience?

BC: It's usually of matter of being truthful to the characters and the world they live in. If a book appeals to both kids and adults it's usually because the characters are strong and relatable. Trusting in the characters, and letting them guide the story, usually leads to exciting situations that everyone can enjoy.

SG: As Bobby mentioned earlier, not "talking down" to the audience is key. And anything that has really core themes and storytelling chops, combined with excitement and imagination - - that helps. I also try and find books that reflect the wonderful diversity of the world around us.

P: What exciting new kids/all-ages titles should readers be on the lookout for from IDW in 2016?

BC: Johnny Boo monthly comics from James Kochalka!! I can't wait to read those. James is hilarious and his comics are always a delight to read.

SG: Those are great! I'm pretty excited about something I can't quite talk about yet...but I hope everyone keeps an eye out for Strawberry Shortcake comics coming from IDW in the spring, with Georgia Ball and Amy Mebberson. Killer creative team on one of my childhood favorites!

> "IF A BOOK APPEALS TO BOTH KIDS AND ADULTS IT'S USUALLY BECAUSE THE CHARACTERS ARE STRONG AND RELATABLE."

P: What's your favorite kids/all-ages titles right now that you would recommend readers pick up from their local shop?

BC: While it deals with heavy themes at times, I would consider Usagi Yojimbo to be all-ages appropriate. That's my favorite comic of all time, so I always recommend it to new-to-comics readers, regardless of age. You of course can't go wrong with TMNT Amazing Adventures or My Little Pony too!

SG: SO many to choose from, sheesh. From all over the all-ages age spectrum: Lumberjanes, all the Raina Telgemeier books, Bone... and I can't wait to read The Princess and the Pony.

P: What would you recommend to retailers just starting a kids section, or to a retailer that wants to expand their offerings?

BC: Make sure the kids section is visible, clean and inviting. Too much clutter or inventory can make some comics seem overwhelming to both parents and their children. Having displays or posters on windows featuring popular characters can also help attract attention.

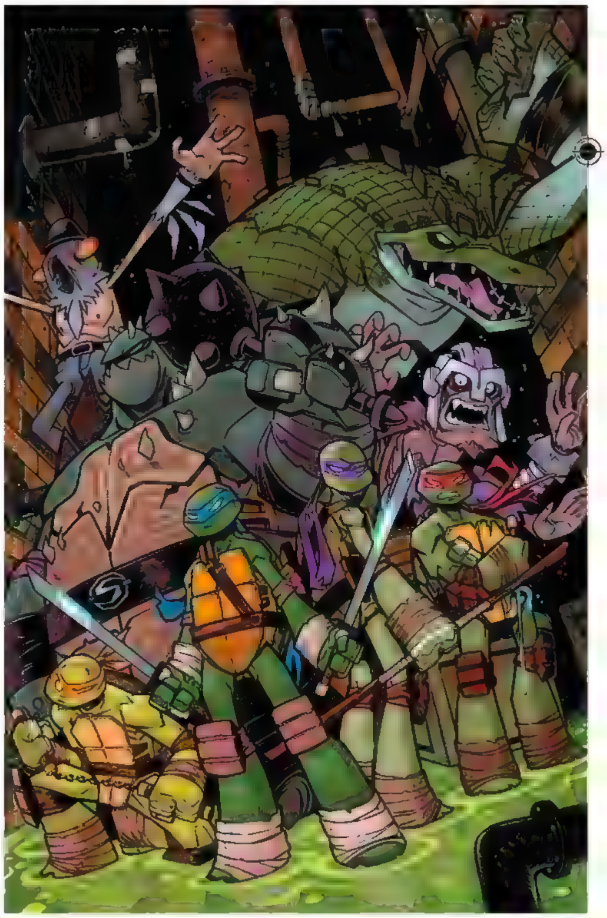
SG: I love an all-ages section with an area for kids to plop down and browse. I also like a nice balance of recognizable characters like Mickey Mouse or Adventure Time, mixed in with original material.

P: IDW has done several popular crossover events between its franchises, such as Cartoon Network Super Secret Crisis War. How difficult is it to edit these worlds together into an interesting and cohesive event?

SG: Yes, it is difficult, but it is also a crazy amount of fun. It really is like mixing all the toys in your toy box together, and creating new universes from scratch. I think the biggest trick is knowing that for each character you mash up, there's someone out there who that's their ABSOLUTE FAVORITE CHARACTER EVER, so you need to make sure everyone has the proper amount of time in the limelight.

P: Bobby, as the main editor for the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles series, do you change your editing style between the more mature ongoing series and the kid friendly Animated series?

BC: Yes, but it's pretty easy as Amazing Adventures is set in the world of the current cartoon, and that series is very exciting and well defined, with its own unique identity. I'm a fan of that show myself, so it's easy to transport myself into that mindset and play in that world. The IDW ongoing series is basically what I'd like to see as an adult, so it's basically just switching between two versions of the same awesome Turtleness!



P: The franchises that you work on feature newer versions of classic characters, how do you balance the history of the characters and the interest of an older audience while making sure that kids will enjoy this stories?

BC: Usually the things that made the franchise a classic for the older fans will be present in the newer version and make fans out of kids new to the property as well. Usually the core of the characters and their world remain largely intact, so the new elements become a way to amuse an older audience so that they're not seeing the same exact story again. Hopefully those new elements are appealing to the younger audience so both sides are finding new things that are appealing.

P: Sarah, it has been said that you have a stellar kid's comics panel that you lead at conventions. Can you tell us a little bit about that?

SG: This is my absolute favorite panel to do. Yes, we talk about what kid's comics we have coming up from IDW and Top Shelf, but we quickly pivot to talking to kids about how to make their OWN comics. I ask the panelists easy to understand questions about their creative path from childhood - - how they learned that writing and/or art was something they wanted to do. I also ask about what their current daily life is like, in terms of work. What sort of things they need to focus on, what skills they need. And then I bribe kids into asking questions about how to make comics, by giving them free stuff. Questions can range from "how did you learn how to draw" to "what's your favorite Pony" to…not actual questions, just sort of stream-of-consciousness storytelling from a 5 year old. I always leave feeling energized and inspired!

> PERHAPS MOST EXCITING OF ALL IS THE IDEA OF A COMIC ABOUT AN UNDEAD HERO FIGHTING HIS WAY BACK TO LIFE, ABLE TO DIE AGAIN IN ANY ISSUE, WHO CAN LOSE IT ALL BUT KEEPS ON GOING. IN OTHER WORDS, THIS IS A COMIC THAT BRINGS TO LIFE ALL THE HIGHS AND LOWS GAMERS FELT WHILE PLAYING DARK SOULS.

DARK SOULS #1

Recommended by Trevor

PREPARE TO DIE. When I picked up the first Dark Souls video game, I laughed out loud at those words printed in bold lettering across the back of the box. Dark Souls is considered one of the most difficult games ever made, and for good reason. Behind the expansive fantasy world of Lordran there is a singular message: you can't take it with you. Unlike most games, Dark Souls omits checkpoints or an in-game save menu, instead only allowing you to save your game at a handful of bonfires which are often hard to locate. In other words, when you die – and you will die – you lose all your progress, resurrecting as an undead warrior at the last bonfire visited, totally stripped of all goodies and experience points. This loss of time and energy means the stakes are higher than pretty much any other game you're likely to find and that taunt, "Prepare to die," hangs over your head as equal parts promise and warning.

This April, in conjunction with the release of the third installment in the franchise, Titan is releasing a Dark Souls comic series with a fresh story by George Mann (Doctor Who), art by Alan Quah (Orphan Black), and covers featuring art from the new game. With so much of this world remaining mysterious due to the game's sparse use of dialogue, this is a chance to explore Lordran in a way that was previously only possible by taking reading the backstory of all the items you find in the game.

DARKWING DUCK #1

Disney
DARKWING DUCK
FOR SALES ONLY - NOT FINAL ART

He is the terror that flaps in the night. He is the jailer that throws away the key, the hairball that clogs your drains, the fingernail that scrapes the blackboard of your soul, he is DARKWING DUCK!

It's been a while since Disney's Darkwing Duck cartoon ended and we last checked in on our favorite crime fighting mallard. Unfortunately, for the citizens of St. Canard, crime hasn't taken a holiday in our absence — but neither has Darkwing! This April, Joe Books is taking us back to St. Canard and reintroducing us to fan favorites Launchpad McQuack, Gosalyn Mallard, and Drake Mallard aka Darkwing Duck with a new monthly series.

Writer Aaron Sparrow captures the essence of the original show while updating the concept for 2016 and James Silvani's artwork is simply spot on. As a kid that grew up in the 80's and early 90's this book is dripping with nostalgia and pulling me back to a time when cartoons like Duck Tales and Tales Spin were must see TV for my generation.

If you're looking for a book suitable for all ages that is fun and witty for both kids and parents that grew up with the original show be sure to check out Darkwing Duck #1 from Joe Books.

STARGATE: ATLANTIS — BACK TO PEGASUS #1

Recommended by Trevor

STARGATE ATLANTIS
HAYNES • VAUGHN • LAROCQUE

JThe wait is over, Stargate fans! American Mythology, a new publisher with an award-winning team of veteran artists, writers, and creative contributors, has partnered with MGM to continue the adventures of Stargate: Atlantis.
In the final moments of the series finale, John Sheppard, Ronon Dex, Teyla, Dr. McKay, and the rest of the Atlantis crew crash-land back on Earth and gaze into San Francisco Bay, finally coming home. Yet, many questions remained unanswered and the main conflict of the show went unresolved. Debuting this April, Stargate: Atlantis — Back to Pegasus is the chance to finally resolve old conflicts and watch beloved characters rise to fresh challenges.

The first issue picks up three months after the series finale with an Atlantis crew eager to go back and finish what they started but, not unlike those many false starts from the past six years, still Earth-bound as government oversight prevents them from returning to fight the Wraith. In typical Stargate fashion, however, a threat to both galaxies will force the crew into action whether the bureaucrats like it or not.

Beginning with a recap of the television series and ending on a cliffhanger, fans of the show and new readers alike will enjoy this first installment of the renewed Atlantis Expedition, with all the action and witty banter that made the show so fun to watch.

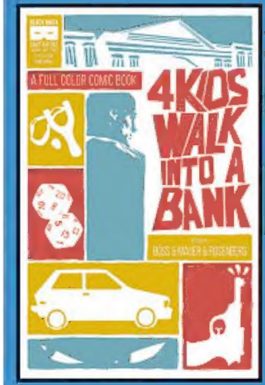
4 KIDS WALK INTO A BANK #1 (OF 4)

Recommended by Jonathan



Let me tell you something right off the bat, Matthew Rosenberg is a name to watch in 2016. He writes compelling stories with a knack for making the characters feel all too real. Rosenberg's We Can Never Go Home stole the show in 2015, picking up nominations for a slew of awards along the way, and his next title, 4 Kids Walk Into a Bank, looks to continue that trend.

Without giving too much away, 4 Kids Walk Into a Bank focuses on Paige and her ragtag group of young friends who find themselves mixed up with some shady characters. Paige's dad is hiding a secret, and the group does whatever it takes to keep him out of trouble. In a story that is a little bit of The Bank Job meets The Little Rascals, you'll find yourself asking what lengths you would go to in order to keep your loved ones and friends safe.

The aptly named Tyler Boss, colorist for We Can Never Go Home, puts on a show with the art and design. Fans of David Aja's work on Marvel's Hawkeye will find solace in Boss's pencils. Every single line and detail is perfectly placed, with impressive panel layout.

4 Kids Walk Into a Bank* is a must-have for your pull list. Jump on board early so that you can be the first to tell your friends about it!
